An Act to authorize the employment of Uncovenanted Deputy Collectors in the Presidency of Bombay.

ACT No. XXI. OF 1852.

An Act to authorize the employment of Uncovenanted Deputy Collectors in the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas the exigencies of the public service require the employment of Uncovenanted Deputy Collectors in the Revenue Department within the Presidency of Bombay, it is hereby enacted as follows:

III. Deputy Collectors appointed under this Act shall discharge such of the duties and exercise such of the powers of the Covenanted Assistants in the Revenue Department, as shall be prescribed from time to time in each case by the Governor of Bombay in Council, and shall be subject to the same control and authority in all respects as such assistants respectively.

V. No Deputy Collector appointed under this Act shall be dimissed from Office without the sanction of the Governor of Bombay in Council. SIR,

I have the honor to request you will be pleased to inform the Most Noble the Governor-General, that agreeably with the intention expressed in my letter of the 25th ultimo, the Rear-Admiral Commander-in-Chief hoisted his Flag on board Her Majesty's Steam Sloop "Rattler," and, accompanied by Her Majesty's Steam Sloop "Salamander," left Penang on the 28th March.

On the 1st April, His Excellency arrived off the mouth of the Rangoon River, where he found lying, Her Majesty's Ships "Fox" and "Serpent," Hon'ble Company's Steamers "Phlegethon" and "Proserpine," three Transports, and the Ship taken from the King of Ava. On the following morning, the Steamers and Transports named in the margin arrived from Calcutta with the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces on board, and the "Salamander" came in shortly after.

Her Majesty's Steam Sloop Hermes.

Hon'ble Company's Steamers Fire Queen, Enterprise, Tenasserim.

Transports. Tubal Cain, Julia, Monarch, Lahore.

The "Proserpine" was sent to Moulmein the same day, to give notice of projected movements, and on the 3rd instant the "Rattler," bearing His Excellency's Flag,—the "Hermes," with the Commander of the Forces on board,—and the "Salamander," sailed for Moulmein. Receiving Troops on board there to the number of fifteen hundred, the Squadron proceeded off Martaban, and assisted at the capture of that place on the 5th instant, the particulars of which the Commander of the Forces will have the honor of communicating to His Lordship. The "Hermes" grounded too far off to be of much use. The "Salamander," owing to her draught of water, could not come so near as was desirable: nevertheless, the shelling was most effective. The "Rattler" took up an admirable position, two hundred and fourteen yards from the Stockades: her shot and shell did much execution. The "Proserpine," admirably managed by her able Commander (whom His Excellency would beg to bring under favorable notice), received the Troops from the larger Steamers and landed them, and at the same time kept up a constant fire upon the Stockades. The only casualties that occurred in the Squadron were on board the "Rattler," where one seaman was wounded in the arm, and two of the Madras Native Infantry.

On the 7th instant, eleven hundred European Troops, with Camp-followers, Baggage, &c., were embarked in the Squadron and the Transport "Jessie," and all sailed for the rendezvous, arriving on the 8th and —— instant.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you, by desire of the Rear Admiral Commander-in-Chief, that, in compliance with an arrangement entered into between the Lieutenant-General Commander of the Forces and His Excellency, Commodore G. R. Lambert, in Her Majesty's Ship "Fox," ascended this River, in force, on the 4th instant, for the purpose of destroying the Stockades below Rangoon; thus clearing the way for the advance of the Squadron.

I have the honor to enclose a copy of a letter from the Commodore, reporting the execution of this service, in a manner which, in the opinion of the Rear Admiral, must meet with approval.

To his EXCELLENCY REAR ADMIRAL C. J. AUSTEN, C. B., Commander-in-Chief.

Sir,

In pursuance of the instructions I had received from your Excellency, I proceeded up the Rangoon River on the afternoon of the 4th instant, taking under my orders Her Majesty's Sloop "Serpent" and the "Tenasserim" and "Phlegethon" Steamers, belonging to the Hon'ble East India Company, with three Companies of H. M.'s 18th Regiment under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Coote. I anchored off the Bassein Creek the same evening.

At day-light, on the morning of the 5th, I again weighed and went up the River, having previously given directions to Commander Luard, with the "Serpent" and "Phlegethon," which I placed under his orders, with one Company of the 18th Regiment to attack and destroy the DeSylvia Stockade, which service he most effectually performed.

I proceeded myself with the "Fox" and "Tenasserim" to the Dunnout, and a new stockade that had recently been erected nearly opposite on the other side of the River; as we approached the Enemy opened an ill-regulated fire on us, two of their shot striking the "Fox," which was soon silenced by Her Majesty's Ship and the Steamer. The Troops and the Marines of the "Fox" were then landed, and by the evening both stockades were burnt, and the whole force re-embarked without any casualty.

I have great satisfaction in stating that the energy and good feeling displayed by both services in performing this duty, was such as to meet my highest approval; and I have to express my thanks for the assistance I received from Lieutenant-Colonel Coote and Commanders Tarleton and Luard, as well as from the Commanders of the Hon'ble East India Company's Steam Vessels of War, "Tenasserim" and "Phlegethon."

I have, &c.,

"RATTLER," AT RANGOON, 16*th April*, 1852.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter of the 9th instant, reporting, for the information of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, the proceedings of the Naval Squadron employed in these Waters, I have the honor further to report, by desire of the Rear Admiral Commander-in-Chief, that on the 10th instant the Ships, Steamers and Transports commenced an advance up the River, and anchored below the Hastings' Shoal that evening.

The "Zenobia" had been sent a part of the way up on the day previous, for the purpose of watering, but, grounding on the De Sylva's Shoal, was unfortunately unable to get out of her difficulties in time to take a part in the proceedings against Rangoon.

A copy of the Rear Admiral's Order to advance is annexed (enclosure No. 1), by which it will be seen that it was intended on the following morning (Easter Sunday) to anchor above the Shoal, but out of the range of fire from the Enemy. I have the honor also to enclose a copy of the General Order for the proceedings of the Squadron while off Rangoon (enclosure No. 2). Some alteration had, however, to be made in the arrangements proposed. It was found that there would not be room for all the Ships to anchor above the Shoal out of gun-shot, without a risk of their grounding, and it was for some time debated whether the Squadron should remain below the Shoal until Monday, or advance on the Sunday morning to take up their positions off Rangoon, and risk the commencement of the action on that day. The tides and other causes decided the Authorities on adopting the latter course, and accordingly the Shoal was crossed on the morning of the 11th by each Ship as the water served. When the first vessels had anchored above it, the Dagon Pagoda fired several guns, apparently with a view to call in the people. Upon the Hon'ble Company's Steamers "Feroze," "Moozuffer" and "Sesostris," taking up their positions, fire was opened upon them from the Stockades on either side, which was returned with shot and shell. In the course of an hour an explosion took place, the importance of which was only afterwards discovered. It was that of a Stockade mounting nine eighteen-pounder guns, well planted, and would doubtless have done great mischief to our shipping, if not thus accidentally silenced so early. Upon the "Fox" advancing to take up her position, she poured effective broadsides into the Stockades on both sides of the river. After consulting the Lieutenant-General Commander of the Forces, the boats of the "Fox" landed, with a party of Seamen and Marines, and a Company of the 18th Royal Irish, and, under cover of the Ship's Guns, stormed two Stockades on the Dalla side. Although a rapid fire of musketry was kept up from many hundreds of the Enemy in these defences, yet this service was happily effected with but one man wounded on our side. Her Majesty's Sloop "Serpent" and the Hon'ble Company's Steamer "Phlegethon" then passed up the river, and anchored above Kemmendine, in order to capture the War-boats and to prevent fire-rafts being sent down upon the Squadron. The "Rattler" and "Tenasserim" next advanced along the line, and succeeded in silencing three more Stockades. The party before alluded to, in the boats of the "Fox," and a few Seamen, with thirty of the Royal Irish from the "Rattler," stormed another on the Dalla side, driving hundreds of the Enemy out of it into the jungle. All the Stockades that had been taken were then set fire to, and burnt in succession. The Ships returned to their respective positions in readiness to land the Troops, which commenced at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 12th, without opposition from the enemy. It was discovered that the Dagon Pagoda was not so far from the Ships as was laid down in the Charts, being at a good shelling distance; the Ships accordingly commenced throwing shells into it. In the course of the evening a Magazine blew up, and the outskirts of the Pagoda were set on fire in several directions, creating great confusion among the Enemy. Shells were occasionally thrown from the ships on the 13th instant during the day and night, frequently setting fire to the Stockades in various places. On the afternoon of that day, a large party of Men, with two elephants and riders, were seen to leave the Pagoda. It was afterwards understood that this was the Governor of Rangoon, who had quitted the Pagoda in despair of being able to hold it.

It will be the pleasing duty of the Commander of the Forces to report the advance of the Troops and the gallant storming of the White House Stockade about half a mile from the landing place, and ultimately the storming and capture of the Dagon Pagoda.

The Rear-Admiral desires further to observe that he leaves to the Lieutenant-General to report upon the conduct of the small Naval Brigade, composed as per margin,* under the Command of Senior Lieutenant S. W. Dorville, of the Flag Ship, employed with the Forces upon this occasion, in the utmost confidence that ample justice will be done to them.

To the MOST NOBLE THE MARQUIS OF DALHOUSIE, K. T.,

Governor General of India in Council, &c. &c. &c.

Fort William.

My Lord Marquis,

While congratulating your Lordship on the success that has hitherto attended the Expedition against Burmah, in the storming and capture of the strongholds of "Martaban" and "Rangoon", I trust your Lordship will permit me to bring under notice the support that I have received from all the Officers and men under my Command, forming the Naval part of the Expedition. The embarking and disembarking the Troops, Baggage, and Military stores, the arrangements for the Transports and for victualling the combined Forces has furnished almost incessant night and day work for the Officers and men under my Orders. It has been done on all sides with the utmost cheerfulness; and this large force has been moved up a rapid river without any accident of moment having occurred, and I have, up to the present time, to thank every Officer and man employed under my orders for the cheerful manner in which they have undergone so much toil in this distressing climate.

To the Commodore I feel under special obligation. His local knowledge proved valuable, as his judgment and discretion were most useful. It would be impossible to value the services of an Officer, second in command, more highly than I do those of the Commodore.

Captain Lynch, Senior Officer of the Indian Navy, has, by his ability, judgment and discretion, rendered essential service.

Commander Mellersh, of my Flag Ship, and Commanders Fishbourne and Tarleton have rendered every possible assistance in carrying out all necessary arrangements. I was an eye-witness to Commander Tarleton's bravely leading his men to storm a Stockade, to his being the first to mount the walls and enter it. Commander Luard, of Her Majesty Sloop "Serpent," has been employed many months in these waters; a more zealous and indefatigable Officer is not to be met with, and relying upon his ability, he has frequently been placed in charge of responsible duties. With the assistance of the Honorable Company's Steamer "Phlegethon," commanded by G. T. Neblett, Esq., he destroyed the DeSylvia Stockades. When the action on the 11th April commenced, he passed along the line of fire in the Sloop under his Command to above Kemmendine, for the purpose of preventing the removal of the War-boats, and while on this service, he was attacked by a very important Stockade, and an Officer (Mr. G. Sproull, Assistant Surgeon,) and seven of his men were wounded, but which he ultimately succeeded in silencing. Before the commencement of the War, he took great pains in surveying the Coast and River, and his information was afterwards of great use.

The Commanders and Officers of the Indian Navy, and of the Hon'ble Company's Uncovenanted Service have, without a single exception, performed their duties with all possible alacrity. Commander Brooking of the "Proserpine" had, at Martaban, an opportunity of particularly distinguishing himself, of which he took good care to avail himself, and it is with great regret that I found myself under the necessity of leaving him at Moulmein for the protection of British interests, and thus losing his valuable services here.

Lieutenant George Rice, in temporary command of the "Maha Nuddee," rendered essential service to the cause. Admirably handling his little vessel, he landed men on the beach to storm Stockades, covering their landing with his own guns, and at the storming of them, he was to be seen among the foremost ranks. In landing men, stores, and baggage, and ascending the narrow creeks of this river, the "Maha Nuddee," has proved most useful.

Senior Lieutenant J. Dorville, of my Flag Ship, commanded the Naval Brigade at the capture of Rangoon; and from the flattering manner in which the Commander of the Forces has been pleased to speak of his services, I feel assured he must be honorably mentioned in the Lieutenant-General's Despatches.

Among those that have fallen victims in the service of their Country upon this occasion, it is my painful duty to record that of the Rev. Thomas T. Baker, Chaplain of Her Majesty's Ship "Fox." Incessantly employed in administering to the wounded and dying, and in burying the dead, he fell a victim to the prevailing epidemic, cholera, on the 16th instant, leaving, I am informed, a widow and young family, who were wholly dependent on him for support.

I was an eye-witness to the indefatigable exertions of Dr. Minter, Surgeon of the "Fox," at the Hospital on shore, and on board the "Tubal Cain." Dr. Montgomery, Superintending Surgeon, expressed himself to me as being under the greatest obligations to him for his assistance. In addition to the duties performed by Dr. Minter at the Hospital, he had those of his own ship to attend to, where the cholera had broken out with some virulence. Mr. Seccombe, Assistant Surgeon of the "Hermes," was also employed at the Hospital on shore.

In conclusion, I beg to remark that the whole conduct of the Officers and men under my Orders, employed on the present Expedition, has been such as reflects much credit on themselves, and the Services to which they respectively belong.

I have the honor to be,
My Lord Marquis,
Your Lordship's Most Obedt., Humble Servant,
(Signed) CHARLES JNO. AUSTEN,
Rear Admiral, Commander-in-Chief.

No. 1.

From Lieutenant General H. GODWIN, C. B.,
Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan and Tenasserim,

To C. ALLEN, Esquire,
Secy. to the Government of India,
Foreign Department, Fort William.

Moulmein, 6th April 1852.

Sir,

I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council, that the force under my command left the Sand Heads on the 20th of March, for the Rangoon River, the place of rendezvous for the combined Force, from Bengal and Madras, where it arrived on the 2nd of April,

In obedience to my instructions, a flag of Truce was immediately sent up to Rangoon, to inquire if any communication had arrived from the Court of Ava, in reply to the terms sent up to the Burmese Government, for the adjustment of the violences committed on the subjects of Her Majesty by the authorities at Rangoon. The flag was in charge of Captain Latter of the Bengal Army, and conveyed in the Hon'ble Company's Steamer "Proserpine," Commander Brooking.

On reaching the stockades that guarded the river on both its banks, the flag was fired on, and it was only by the excellent arrangement and brave conduct of Commander Brooking that his ship extricated herself, inflicting on the enemy a severe chastisement, by blowing up a powder magazine, and destroying many men.

I found, on my arrival at the rendezvous, that the Madras Division had not made its appearance, nor were there tidings of it, so that I resolved to go to Moulmein, and make arrangements for the capture of Martaban.

In the Rangoon river, I found that Rear-Admiral Austen, C. B., the Naval Commander-in-Chief, had just arrived from Penang in H. M.'s Steamer "Rattler." His Excellency and Commodore Lambert immediately came on board the "Hermes," Commander Fishbourne, in which I had my Head-Quarters, when it was agreed, in conference, that the Admiral would accompany me to Moulmein, with H. M.'s Steamers "Hermes," "Rattler" and "Salamander," sending in advance to the mouth of the Martaban river the H. C. Steamer "Proserpine." We accordingly left the Rangoon river at daybreak on the 3rd April, reached Moulmein the next day at noon. Orders were immediately issued for the Troops to be in readiness for embarkation by 4 P. M. and by 9 that evening a wing of H. M.'s 18th R. I., a wing of H. M.'s 80th Regt., a wing of the 26th Madras Native Infantry, with details of Bengal European Artillery, and Madras Sappers, in all about 1,400 men, were on board.

Martaban stands on a noble sheet of water, with a river line of defences of about 800 yards. Inland lies a large Pagoda, a wall running along the whole front, with an ascent from the water's edge of about 500 feet, on the top of which small Pagodas stand, the slope being partially covered with fine trees and close jungle.

Arrangements were made for the attack at day-break of the 5th. The Rear-Admiral made every disposition possible, in waters full of shoals and violent currents, for bombarding the position with his five Steamers, and to cover the landing of the Troops. It was the admiration of every one to witness the noble manner the "Rattler" worked her way to within 200 yards of the wall, and close to the Pagoda, doing tremendous execution. I changed from the "Rattler" at six o'clock to superintend the landing of the Troops, and went on board the "Proserpine," a smaller vessel, with my Staff. Colonel Reignolds commanded the attack. At half past 6, the Steamer opened fire, and at 7 the Troops were in the boats, and landed by the indefatigable exertions of Commander Brooking, under a smart fire of musketry and guns. Soon was the storming party under the walls, and over them, with less loss than I thought possible. Lieut. Col. Reignolds immediately ascended to the Pagodas on the height, and took possession of them after some skirmishing with the Enemy.

At 8 A. M. Martaban was our own, and considering the Enemy's position and numbers, which report gives at 5,000 men, we have got it very cheaply.

I have to ask His Lordship's, and the Council of India's, best consideration of the services of Lieut.-Col. Reignolds, of the 18th R. I., to whom is due the credit of this day's endurance of severe fatigue and privation under a burning sun.

To Captain Gillespie, in command of the Grenadiers of the 18th R. I., whom I saw first on the wall, the soldier following him receiving three wounds, to Captain Campbell, who commanded the wing of the 18th R. I.; to Major Lockhart, in command of the wing of the 80th Foot, to Lieut.-Col. Johnston, commanding the wing of the 26th Regt., Madras Native Infantry, and to Capt. Randall, commanding the Detachment of Madras Sappers and Miners, my warm approbation is due.

I beg also to recommend to the consideration of His Lordship in Council, the Assistant Adjutant General of the Force, Captain Mayhew, whose exertions, during the disembarkation of the Troops, tended greatly to its success, as also my Aides-de-Camp, Lieut. Chads, of H. M.'s 64th Regt., and Lieut. Lambert, of the 56th N. I., son of the Commodore, who were highly useful to me during the whole day.

Major Fraser, the Commanding Engineer of the Force, and Major Turton, in command of the Bengal Artillery, were with me the whole day, but from the nature of the Operations, their particular services were not called into play, though they had made every disposition for the efficiency of their respective departments.

It will be obvious from the foregoing how greatly the success of the Operations I have detailed has depended on the co-operation of the sister branch of the Service. His Excellency, Rear-Admiral Austen, C. B., has throughout afforded me the most cordial assistance. Her Majesty's Steamers "Rattler," "Hermes" and "Salamander," worked in concert with the Troops throughout the day.

On my departure to-morrow, I intend to take with me to the Rangoon River the wings of the 18th and 80th Regiments, and the company of Bengal Artillery, and the detachments of Madras Sappers and Miners, doing duty at Moulmein.

In conjunction with Lieut.-Col. Bogle, the Commissioner of these Provinces, I have put the 26th Madras N. I., and a Company of European Madras Artillery, with a suitable Battery of Guns, as a Garrison at Martaban, relievable from Moulmein, when it may be thought desirable.

In addition to which a War Steamer has been placed by the Naval Commander-in-Chief on the Station. These arrangements are, I think, adequate to the protection of the place, and will, I trust, meet with the approbation of the Government of India.

In conclusion, I beg to remark that I am greatly indebted to Lieut.-Col. Bogle, who accompanied me during the whole of the operations of the 5th, and was, from his local knowledge, of much use to me.

I have, &c.,

FROM LIEUTENANT-GENERAL H. GODWIN, C. B.,
Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan and Tenasserim,

To C. ALLEN, Esq.,
Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of India,
Foreign Department.

SIR,

On my return from Martaban on the 8th of April, I had the satisfaction to find the Madras Division had arrived on the previous day, so that no time had been lost by my going to Martaban.

It was arranged that during my absence at Moulmein, Commodore Lambert should, on the 5th instant, aided by some Troops, destroy the Stockades on the Rangoon River, which had long been troublesome, and had fired on the "Flag of Truce." This had been so effectually performed, as to leave hardly a sign of where the Stockades had stood.

I shall now have the satisfaction of acquainting you, for the information of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council, of the proceedings of this Force, inclusive of the Capture of the Great Dagun Pagoda at Rangoon, and the consequent fall of all around it.

The 9th of April I devoted to making every disposition for the landing of the Troops, and to becoming acquainted with the Heads of Departments of the Madras Division. I informed the Admiral on the evening of that day, that my preparations were complete, and His Excellency proceeded up the River the next day, close off Rangoon. On the 11th, the Admiral moved opposite the old Town, with the intention the next morning to bombard the whole line of Stockades on both banks of the River; but some of the Flotilla, getting very near the shore, were fired on, which brought on a return from our side, and ended in the general destruction of the whole line of Defences, though the fire of the Enemy proved fatal to many on board the Shipping. The Admiral and Commodore took a most distinguished part in the operations, landing and setting fire to all around them. This powerful attack, from the Steam Frigates of both Her Majesty's and the Hon'ble Company's Navy, completely cleared the ground for nearly a mile for our landing. On Monday the 12th, at daybreak, the Troops were ready, and by about 7 A. M. I had landed Her Majesty's 51st Light Infantry, the 18th Royal Irish, the 40th Bengal Native Infantry, and part of my Artillery. The Bengal Guns, under Major Reid, were ordered to move in advance, covered by four Companies of the 51st Light Infantry. They had not proceeded far, however, when on opening some rising ground to our right, Guns opened on us, and shortly after skirmishers showed themselves in the Jungle. This was a new mode of fighting with the Burmese, no instance having occurred last War of their attacking our Flanks, or leaving their Stockades, that I remember ever to have taken place. I make this remark as they are now not only good shots, but bold in their operations, and clever in selecting their ground and covering themselves. Our casualties for the past three days will prove it, our dress exposing us, and their garb and color concealing them.

On looking at the Stockade whence the fire came, I perceived it was a strong work, which used to be called in the last War the "White House" Picquet, a very strong position, and just in the way of our advance. A Battery of four Guns was immediately opened on it by Majors Reid and Oaks, the whole being under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Foord, Commandant of that Arm. The fire of these Guns was very effective. A storming party was formed of four Companies of the 51st Light Infantry, under Lieutenant-Colonel St. Maur, with the Madras Sappers under Major H. Fraser, Commanding Engineer, and advanced under cover of a Jungle; on getting through which, the Musketry was so steady and effective from the Stockades, and adjoining buildings, that a great many of our party were killed and wounded, amongst whom were several Officers. I have to deplore the temporary loss of Lieutenant-Colonel Bogle, the Commissioner of the Tenasserim Provinces, who was very bravely attending the Army to witness its operation. Major Fraser took the Ladders to the Stockade most gallantly, and alone mounted the defences of the Enemy, where his example soon brought around him the storming party, which carried the Stockade; but at very severe loss on our part.

It was my intention to move on to the main object of our operations; but on looking around me at the complete exhaustion of the storming party, it now being 11 o'clock, under a sun that may be understood, since Major Oakes, of the Madras Artillery, was struck down by it, at his Battery, and died. Brevet Major Griffith, Madras Army, whilst conveying an order, died on the road. Lieut.-Colonel Foord, Commandant of Artillery, was nearly a victim to the heat, and obliged to quit the field. Brigadier Warren and Lieut.-Colonel St. Maur also suffered greatly: so that under such destruction I resolved to halt where I was, and concentrate the Force in as strong a position as the country admitted of. We were teazed by parties of the Enemy hovering around us till the night closed, when all was quiet under the protection of our Guns, which had been brought up to the front.

On Tuesday, the 13th, it was reported the heavy Battery Guns could not be landed, and with me, before the middle of that day; and also that rations for the Troops could not be prepared in time to enable me to advance. I therefore held my position till the next morning.

His Lordship in Council knows well the spot where I proposed to force my way into the Great Pagoda; and the road I was about to move on entirely turned all the defences of this real stronghold. The present position of Rangoon is entirely altered since the last War within a few years, the old Town, which stood on the River bank, has been utterly destroyed, its bricks now lying in heaps on its site. A new Town has been formed about a mile and quarter from the River, it is nearly a square, with a bund or mud-wall about sixteen feet high and eight broad; a ditch runs along each side of the square, and on the North side, where the Pagoda stands, it has been very cleverly worked into the defences, to which it forms a sort of Citadel. The distance from the Pagoda to the South entrance of the Town is about ¾ of a mile, and it is something more than that breadth from East to West. The old road from the River to the Pagoda, comes up to the South Gate running through the new Town, and it was by this road the Burmese had settled that we should attack it,—and where they had made every preparation to receive us, having armed the defences with nearly a hundred pieces of cannon, and other missiles, and with a Garrison of at least ten thousand men. The attempt to assault on this side, would, I am convinced, from the steady way the Burmese defend their works, have cost us half our Force.

On Wednesday the 14th, the Troops were under arms, at 5 A. M., all in as fine a temper as ever men were. Our march was to the North-west, through thick Jungle, four light Guns, 9 p., their flanks protected by 2 Companies of H. M.'s 80th Regiment, the rest of the Wing of that Corps following with two more Guns, and the 18th Royal Irish and the 40th B. N. I. formed the advance. The 51st L. I. and the 35th M. N. I. were in reserve, the 9th M. N. I. keeping open the communication with the Shipping. We proceeded in this order for about a mile, when we opened the Great

Pagoda, and its fire was turned on us. An excellent position for two Guns was taken by Major Turton, to our left flank—these were left under the command of Major Montgomerie, of the Madras Artillery, who served them well. The ground to the front getting very difficult, barely admitted of the 80th and Royal Irish occupying it in close order. We had now completely turned the Enemy's position, having passed their Stockaded Town, and got opposite the East side of the Great Pagoda—our main object. Major Turton informed me that he had a favorable position to place in Battery his heavy Guns; but it took some time to bring them up—a service in which the Navy Brigade, of about 120 men, under the command of Lieutenant Dorville, of H. M.'s Frigate "Fox," assisted by the Artillery, rendered their invaluable aid, under a heavy fire of Guns and Wall Pieces from the Great Pagoda and Town, from which they suffered severely: whilst this was going on, the Enemy's Artillery had got the range of our crowded position, and their Skirmishers had somewhat closed on us, and it took 500 men to keep down their fire. The practice of the heavy Battery, under Major 'Back, was very effective. My intention was to have stormed the Pagoda at noon; but at a little after 11, Captain Latter, of the Bengal Army, my Interpreter, assured me he felt confident from what he could see of the East entrance of the Pagoda, on which our Battery was playing, that the entrance was clear, and that he was prepared to show the way. As our people were dropping fast where we stood, I determined on an immediate assault. The storming party was formed of the Wing of H. M.'s 80th Regiment under Major Lockhart, two Companies of the Royal Irish under Lieutenant Hewitt, and of two Companies of the 40th B. N. I. under Lieutenant White, the whole commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Coote, of the 18th R. I.,—Captain Latter accompanying the party to show the road. The advance to the East entrance of the Pagoda was of about 800 yards, which the Troops crossed in a most steady manner under the fire of the walls crowded with the Enemy, the remainder of the Force following closely. When the storming party reached the steps, a tremendous rush was made to the upper terrace, and a deafening cheer told that the Pagoda no longer belonged to the Burmese. The Enemy ran in confusion from the Southern and Western Gates, where they were met by fire of the Steamers. All the country around has fallen with the Pagoda, and, I understand, the once strong post of Kemmendine has been abandoned and destroyed.

In this united service, there has been not only a cordial co-operation between the Army and Navy, but so much good-heartedness, that their joint efforts have tended to secure the rapid success of this Expedition. I cannot presume to say of Rear Admiral Austen, C. B., Commanding the Navy, more than to express my admiration and respect for his qualities, and to thank him for his able and never-failing assistance. Commodore Lambert, whose spirit never is at rest whilst anything is to be done, and whose heart is ever ready to accomplish what he undertakes, has my cordial thanks and warmest gratitude. I particularly wish to draw the attention of His Lordship in Council to Commander Fishbourne, of H. M.'s Steamer "Hermes," who from the first fitting out of the Expedition in Calcutta to the close of these Operations, has been indefatigable in assisting in the embarkation of Stores and Troops, and in removing difficulties, and finding resources which alone enabled the Expedition to sail at the time appointed; and nothing will give me such satisfaction as his aid, were a forward movement to be made hereafter.

My most difficult task now commences—that of recommending to the protection of the Governor General in Council a number of brave men, who have had opportunities of distinguishing themselves in a service where the utmost emulation and gallant devotion were shown by all.

I beg the Most Noble the Governor General's consideration of the services of Brigadier Elliott, who was conspicuous in every place where he could be useful, of Lieutenant-Colonel Reignold, who commands the Bengal Brigade, in consequence of Brigadier Warren's prostration by the sun, and who has borne a very large share in these Operations, including Martaban; of Lieutenant-Colonel Coote, of the 18th R. I., who commanded the storming party, when he was severely wounded; of Lieutenant-Colonel Thomson, Commanding the 40th Bengal N. I., in the assault; of Major Lockhart, Commanding the Wing of H. M.'s 80th, on the same occasion; of Major Fraser, Commanding Engineer of the Force, who not only distinguished himself most gallantly at the "White House" Stockade, but whose indefatigable exertions have never for a moment ceased; of Major Turton, who commanded the Artillery, after Lieutenant-Colonel Foord's retirement from illness, and whose labours in his department have been the cause of his suffering, I regret to say, under severe indisposition at the present moment; of Majors Reid, of the Bengal, and Montgomerie of the Madras, Artillery; of Captain Rundall, Commanding the Sappers and Miners,—to all of whom I am deeply indebted.

The Assistant Adjutant General of the Force, Captain Mayhew, was everywhere present during these three days' Operations; and the assistance he has rendered me on all occasions has been very valuable. Major Allan, the Assistant Quarter Master General, was severely wounded at the "White House" Stockade, since when Major Boulderson, my Deputy Judge Advocate General, has been performing his duties, and has rendered essential assistance since the Operations commenced. I beg to bring all three to the notice of Government.

The Officers Commanding Brigades have recommended to my notice the valuable aid they have received from their respective Brigade Majors—Captain Call of the 18th R. I. and Captain Smith of the 18th M. N. I.; and Major Turton has brought to my attention the indefatigable exertions of Lieutenant Robertson, the Deputy Commissary of Ordnance, in landing his Guns and Stores.

I beg leave to bring to His Lordship's notice the assistance I have received from my Aides-de-Camp Lieutenant Chads, of H. M.'s 64th Regiment, who was wounded at the "White House" Stockade, but did not leave me during the Operations, and Lieutenant Lambert, of the 56th N. I., who, after great exertion, was one of the victims to the sun on that day, which obliges him to return to Calcutta, and who will convey these Despatches.

In conclusion, I regret that the order of the landing of the Troops did not afford me an opportunity of availing myself of the services of the 9th Madras N. I. and 35th M. N. I., in the front, but they tended greatly to give freedom to my leading column, and will, from their soldierly bearing, doubtless do honor to the distinguished Service to which they belong, when they are brought more closely under fire.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

NOTIFICATION.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

FORT WILLIAM, the 28th April 1852.

The Governor General of India in Council, having failed to obtain redress from the Court of Ava for injuries which had been inflicted on British Subjects, in gross violation of existing Treaties, was compelled to declare that reparation should be exacted by force of Arms.

To that end an Expedition was immediately prepared and despatched to the Coast, in the hope that a blow promptly struck against the Burmese Power might possibly lead to a concession of the just and moderate demands advanced by the Government of India, and might thus avert the necessity for engaging in extended and costly war.

The Governor General in Council has had the satisfaction of publishing, for general information, Despatches, which announce the success of the Expedition, in the capture of Martaban, in the destruction of the formidable defences constructed along the River, and in the assault and occupation of the fortifications of Rangoon.

The Governor General in Council cannot employ terms too strong in expressing his unqualified approbation of the brilliant service which has thus been performed, and his gratitude to those by whose joint exertions it has been achieved.

His admiration is due equally to the perfect cordiality and concert with which Navy and Army have acted together, to the gallantry which has been conspicuous in the Field, and to the fortitude and patience with which all have endured, without a murmur, a fierceness of climate, whose deadly influence is unhappily too well attested by the number of those who have fallen victims to its effects.

The Governor General in Council especially desires to offer to the Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Naval Forces in these Seas his warm acknowledgments of the ready co-operation, and of the very effective aid which His Excellency has afforded to the Government of India, by the powerful Squadron under his command, whose operations he has so ably directed, and in whose services he has borne so distinguished a part.

To Lieut-Genl. Godwin, Commanding the Forces in Ava, the Governor General in Council begs leave to tender his most full and cordial thanks, for the manner in which, by his intrepidity, his energy and ability, he has brought the Military Operations of the Force to their present successful issue; and to congratulate him upon having thus won fresh and higher honors upon the same scene on which he formerly gained so much distinction.

The Governor General in Council has great satisfaction in publicly rendering to Commodore Lambert his sincere acknowledgments of the promptitude with which he gave his assistance to the Government of India, of his constant exertions on its behalf during a trying service, and especially of the prominent share he has now borne in the destruction of the River defences; thus materially facilitating the movements of the Squadron and the ultimate success of the attack.

The best thanks of the Governor General in Council are due to Brigadier Elliott, Commanding the Madras Brigade, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Reignolds, who, after having taken a part in every operation of the Troops, has assumed the command of the Bengal Brigade, from which illness, which the Governor General in Council regrets, has removed Brigadier Warren.

The Governor General in Council is happy to record his appreciation of the essential service rendered by Captain Lynch, the senior officer of the Indian Navy, to whose ability, judgment, and discretion His Excellency the Rear Admiral has borne his testimony on this occasion.

And His Lordship in Council at the same time desires to mark his sense of the services of Commander Mellersh, of Commander Fishbourne, by whose aid the Government has largely profited; of Commander Tarleton, Commander Luard, Lieutenant Rice, R. N., Captain Niblett, of H. C. S. "Phlegethon," and of Surgeon Minter, whose personal exertions have been severally commended by His Excellency.

The Governor General in Council has to add his marked acknowledgments of the valuable assistance afforded during the attack on the land defences of Rangoon by Lieutenant Dorville, R. N. and the Naval Brigade under his orders.

The Governor General in Council has further remarked with gratification the distinguished conduct of Captain Brooking, of H. C. Steamer "Proserpine." His Lordship in Council wishes to express his warm approbation of conduct which has elicited the applause, both of the Admiral, and of the General who witnessed it.

The conspicuous gallantry of Major Fraser, commanding the Engineers, and his indefatigable exertions since the expedition was resolved upon, more especially in the field, command the highest praise and the best thanks of the Supreme Government.

To Lieutenant Colonel Foord, Commanding the Artillery; to Major Turton and Major Reid, of the Bengal Artillery; to Major Montgomerie, of the Madras Artillery; to Lieutenant Colonel Coote, of Her Majesty's 18th, who has been severely wounded; to Lieutenant Colonel Thomson, of the 40th Native Infantry; to Lieutenant Colonel Johnson, of 26th Madras Native Infantry; and to Major Lockhart, of Her Majesty's 80th Regiment; to Captain Mayhew, Deputy Adjutant General, whose value is specially remarked; to Captain Allan, Deputy Quarter Master General; to Captain Call and Captain Smith, Brigade Majors; to Lieutenant Robertson, Deputy Commissary of Ordnance; to Captain Gillespie, who led the assault at Martaban, and Captain Campbell, of Her Majesty's 18th; to Captain Randall, Commanding Madras Sappers and Miners; to Captain Chads and Lieutenant Lambert, Aides-de-Camp to the Lieutenant General, the services of all of whom have been noticed with approbation by General Godwin, the Governor General in Council begs to offer his earnest thanks.

The Governor General in Council has to offer his thanks to Lieutenant Colonel Bogle, Commissioner of the Tenasserim Provinces, for the valuable aid he rendered to General Godwin in connexion with the attack upon Martaban; and His Lordship in Council particularly desires to record his approbation of the energetic and successful exertions of the Commissioner in giving effect to the preparations of the Government for ensuring, as far as possible, the health and comfort of the troops to be employed upon the expedition.

Captain Latter, who has discharged his functions hitherto to the entire satisfaction of the Government, has added to his claims by the duty which he well performed in the assault on the Pagoda at Rangoon.

Not only to the Officers he has thus specially named, but to all the Officers, to the Non-Commissioned Officers, of whatever designation, and to the Soldiers and Sailors of the force, the Governor General in Council desires to convey his true and hearty thanks for the alacrity, the endurance, the bravery and good conduct they have displayed during the several operations in which they have been engaged.

The Governor General in Council deeply laments to know that our success has not been achieved without the sacrifice of valued lives.

He deplores the loss of Major Oakes and of Brevet Major Griffiths, of the Madras Artillery; of Lieutenant Armstrong, of H. M.'s 51st Regiment; of Lieutenant Donaldson, of Bengal Engineers; of Lieutenant Doran, of H. M.'s 18th, who nobly perished in the front of the assault; and of the Reverend Mr. Baker, Chaplain of H. M.'s Ship "Fox," and other brave men who died in the performance of their several duties in the service of their country.

It shall be the first care of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council, to bring the conduct and services of the Naval and Military forces on the Coast of Burmah under the most favourable notice of Her Majesty's Government and of the Hon'ble East India Company.

Proceedings of the Squadron employed in the Rangoon River.

"RATTLER," RANGOON RIVER, 9TH APRIL 1852.

O THE OFFICIATING SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
Foreign Department, FORT WILLIAM.

SIR,

I have the honor to request you will be pleased to inform the Most Noble the overnor-General, that agreeably with the intention expressed in my letter of the 25th ultimo, the ear-Admiral Commander-in-Chief hoisted his Flag on board Her Majesty's Steam Sloop "Rattler," nd, accompanied by Her Majesty's Steam Sloop "Salamander," left Penang on the 28th March.

On the 1st April, His Excellency arrived off the mouth of the Rangoon River, where he found lying, Her Majesty's Ships "Fox" and "Serpent," Hon'ble Company's Steamers "Phlegethon" and "Proserpine," three Transports, and the Ship taken from the King of Ava. On the following morning, the Steamers and Transports named in the margin arrived from Calcutta with the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces on board, and the "Salamander" came in shortly after.

Her Majesty's Steam Sloop Hermes.

on'ble Company's Steamers Fire Queen, Enterprise, Tenasserim

Transports. Tubal Cain, Julia, Monarch, Lahore.

The "Proserpine" was sent to Moulmein the same day, to give notice of projected movements, and on the 3rd instant the "Rattler," bearing is Excellency's Flag,—the "Hermes," with the Commander of the Forces on board,—and the Salamander," sailed for Moulmein. Receiving Troops on board there to the number of fifteen undred, the Squadron proceeded off Martaban, and assisted at the capture of that place on the 5th instant, the particulars of which the Commander of the Forces will have the honor of communicatin to His Lordship. The "Hermes" grounded too far off to be of much use. The "Salamander," owing t her draught of water, could not come so near as was desirable: nevertheless, the shelling was mos effective. The "Rattler" took up an admirable position, two hundred and fourteen yards from th Stockades: her shot and shell did much execution. The "Proserpine," admirably managed by he able Commander (whom His Excellency would beg to bring under favorable notice), received th Troops from the larger Steamers and landed them, and at the same time kept up a constant fire upo the Stockades. The only casualties that occurred in the Squadron were on board the "Rattler," where one seaman was wounded in the arm, and two of the Madras Native Infantry.

On the 7th instant, eleven hundred European Troops, with Camp-followers, Baggage, &c., wer embarked in the Squadron and the Transport "Jessie," and all sailed for th rendezvous, arriving on the 8th and —— instant.

Steamers.
Feroze, Zenobia,
Sesostris, Berenice,
Mooltiffer, Medusa.

Transports.
Rockliff, Atalanta,
Hempsyke, Sir T. Gresham.

The Steamers and Transports named in the margin had arrived a the rendezvous, and arrangements are this day being made for an advanc upon Rangoon.

The Rear Admiral will have the honor of communicating futur proceedings as opportunities occur.

I have the honor to be, &c.

(Signed) GEO. P. MARTIN, Secretary.

"RATTLER," RANGOON RIVER, 9th April 1852.

TO THE OFFICIATING SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
Fort William.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you, by desire of the Rear Admiral Commander-in-Chie that, in compliance with an arrangement entered into between the Lieutenant-General Command of the Forces and His Excellency, Commodore G. R. Lambert, in Her Majesty's Ship "Fox," ascend this River, in force, on the 4th instant, for the purpose of destroying the Stockades below Rangoon thus clearing the way for the advance of the Squadron.

I have the honor to enclose a copy of a letter from the Commodore, reporting the execution this service, in a manner which, in the opinion of the Rear Admiral, must meet with approval.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

(Signed) GEO. P. MARTIN,
Secretary.

"FOX," IN THE RANGOON RIVER, 6th April 1852.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY REAR ADMIRAL C. J. AUSTEN, C. B., Commander-in-Chief.

SIR,

In pursuance of the instructions I had received from your Excellency, I proceede up the Rangoon River on the afternoon of the 4th instant, taking under my orders Her Majesty Sloop "Serpent" and the "Tenasserim" and "Phlegethon" Steamers, belonging to the Hon'ble Ea India Company, with three Companies of H. M.'s 18th Regiment under the Command of Lieut nant-Colonel Coote. I anchored off the Bassein Creek the same evening.

At day-light, on the morning of the 5th, I again weighed and went up the River, havin previously given directions to Commander Luard, with the "Serpent" and "Phlegethon," which placed under his orders, with one Company of the 18th Regiment to attack and destroy th DeSylvia Stockade, which service he most effectually performed.

I proceeded myself with the "Fox" and "Tenasserim" to the Dunnout, and a new stockade th had recently been erected nearly opposite on the other side of the River; as we approached the Enem opened an ill-regulated fire on us, two of their shot striking the "Fox," which was soon silenced b Her Majesty's Ship and the Steamer. The Troops and the Marines of the "Fox" were then lande and by the evening both stockades were burnt, and the whole force re-embarked without any casualty

I have great satisfaction in stating that the energy and good feeling displayed by both service in performing this duty, was such as to meet my highest approval; and I have to express my thank for the assistance I received from Lieutenant-Colonel Coote and Commanders Tarleton and Luard, a well as from the Commanders of the Hon'ble East India Company's Steam Vessels of War, "Tena serim" and "Phlegethon."

I have, &c.,

(Signed) G. R. LAMBERT,
Commodore.

"RATTLER," AT RANGOON, 16*th April*, 1852.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter of the 9th instant, reporting, for the information of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, the proceedings of the Naval Squadron employed in these Waters, I have the honor further to report, by desire of the Rear Admiral Commander-in-Chief, that on the 10th instant the Ships, Steamers and Transports commenced an advance up the River, and anchored below the Hastings' Shoal that evening.

The "Zenobia" had been sent a part of the way up on the day previous, for the purpose of watering, but, grounding on the De Sylva's Shoal, was unfortunately unable to get out of her difficulties in time to take a part in the proceedings against Rangoon.

A copy of the Rear Admiral's Order to advance is annexed (enclosure No. 1), by which it will be seen that it was intended on the following morning (Easter Sunday) to anchor above the Shoal, but out of the range of fire from the Enemy. I have the honor also to enclose a copy of the General Order for the proceedings of the Squadron while off Rangoon (enclosure No. 2). Some alteration had, however, to be made in the arrangements proposed. It was found that there would not be room for all the Ships to anchor above the Shoal out of gun-shot, without a risk of their grounding, and it was for some time debated whether the Squadron should remain below the Shoal until Monday, or advance on the Sunday morning to take up their positions off Rangoon, and risk the commencement of the action on that day. The tides and other causes decided the Authorities on adopting the latter course, and accordingly the Shoal was crossed on the morning of the 11th by each Ship as the water served. When the first vessels had anchored above it, the Dagon Pagoda fired several guns, apparently with a view to call in the people. Upon the Hon'ble Company's Steamers "Feroze," "Moozuffer" and "Sesostris," taking up their positions, fire was opened upon them from the Stockades on either side, which was returned with shot and shell. In the course of an hour an explosion took place, the importance of which was only afterwards discovered. It was that of a Stockade mounting nine eighteen-pounder guns, well planted, and would doubtless have done great mischief to our shipping, if not thus accidentally silenced so early. Upon the "Fox" advancing to take up her position, she poured effective broadsides into the Stockades on both sides of the river. After consulting the Lieutenant-General Commander of the Forces, the boats of the "Fox" landed, with a party of Seamen and Marines, and a Company of the 18th Royal Irish, and, under cover of the Ship's Guns, stormed two Stockades on the Dalla side. Although a rapid fire of musketry was kept up from many hundreds of the Enemy in these defences, yet this service was happily effected with but one man wounded on our side. Her Majesty's Sloop "Serpent" and the Hon'ble Company's Steamer "Phlegethon" then passed up the river, and anchored above Kemmendine, in order to capture the War-boats and to prevent fire-rafts being sent down upon the Squadron. The "Rattler" and "Tenasserim" next advanced along the line, and succeeded in silencing three more Stockades. The party before alluded to, in the boats of the "Fox," and a few Seamen, with thirty of the Royal Irish from the "Rattler," stormed another on the Dalla side, driving hundreds of the Enemy out of it into the jungle. All the Stockades that had been taken were then set fire to, and burnt in succession. The Ships returned to their respective positions in readiness to land the Troops, which commenced at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 12th, without opposition from the enemy. It was discovered that the Dagon Pagoda was not so far from the Ships as was laid down in the Charts, being at a good shelling distance; the Ships accordingly commenced throwing shells into it. In the course of the evening a Magazine blew up, and the outskirts of the Pagoda were set on fire in several directions, creating great confusion among the Enemy. Shells were occasionally thrown from the ships on the 13th instant during the day and night, frequently setting fire to the Stockades in various places. On the afternoon of that day, a large party of Men, with two elephants and riders, were seen to leave the Pagoda. It was afterwards understood that this was the Governor of Rangoon, who had quitted the Pagoda in despair of being able to hold it.

It will be the pleasing duty of the Commander of the Forces to report the advance of the Troops and the gallant storming of the White House Stockade about half a mile from the landing place, and ultimately the storming and capture of the Dagon Pagoda.

The Rear-Admiral desires further to observe that he leaves to the Lieutenant-General to report upon the conduct of the small Naval Brigade, composed as per margin,* under the Command of Senior Lieutenant S. W. Dorville, of the Flag Ship, employed with the Forces upon this occasion, in the utmost confidence that ample justice will be done to them.

"RATTLER," AT RANGOON, 16TH APRIL 1852.

TO THE MOST NOBLE THE MARQUIS OF DALHOUSIE, K. T.,

Governor General of India in Council, &c. &c. &c.

FORT WILLIAM.

MY LORD MARQUIS,

While congratulating your Lordship on the success that has hitherto attended the Expedition against Burmah, in the storming and capture of the strongholds of "Martaban" and "Rangoon", I trust your Lordship will permit me to bring under notice the support that I have received from all the Officers and men under my Command, forming the Naval part of the Expedition. The embarking and disembarking the Troops, Baggage, and Military stores, the arrangements for the Transports and for victualling the combined Forces has furnished almost incessant night and day work for the Officers and men under my Orders. It has been done on all sides with the utmost cheerfulness; and this large force has been moved up a rapid river without any accident of moment having occurred, and I have, up to the present time, to thank every Officer and man employed under my orders for the cheerful manner in which they have undergone so much toil in this distressing climate.

To the Commodore I feel under special obligation. His local knowledge proved valuable, as his judgment and discretion were most useful. It would be impossible to value the services of an Officer, second in command, more highly than I do those of the Commodore.

Captain Lynch, Senior Officer of the Indian Navy, has, by his ability, judgment and discretion, rendered essential service.

Commander Mellersh, of my Flag Ship, and Commanders Fishbourne and Tarleton have rendered every possible assistance in carrying out all necessary arrangements. I was an eye-witness to Commander Tarleton's bravely leading his men to storm a Stockade, to his being the first to mount the walls and enter it. Commander Luard, of Her Majesty Sloop "Serpent," has been employed many months in these waters; a more zealous and indefatigable Officer is not to be met with, and relying upon his ability, he has frequently been placed in charge of responsible duties. With the assistance of the Honorable Company's Steamer "Phlegethon," commanded by G. T. Neblett, Esq., he destroyed the DeSylvia Stockades. When the action on the 11th April commenced, he passed along the line of fire in the Sloop under his Command to above Kemmendine, for the purpose of preventing the removal of the War-boats, and while on this service, he was attacked by a very important Stockade, and an Officer (Mr. G. Sproull, Assistant Surgeon,) and seven of his men were wounded, but which he ultimately succeeded in silencing. Before the commencement of the War, he took great pains in surveying the Coast and River, and his information was afterwards of great use.

The Commanders and Officers of the Indian Navy, and of the Hon'ble Company's Uncovenanted Service have, without a single exception, performed their duties with all possible alacrity. Commander Brooking of the "Proserpine" had, at Martaban, an opportunity of particularly distinguishing himself, of which he took good care to avail himself, and it is with great regret that I found myself under the necessity of leaving him at Moulmein for the protection of British interests, and thus losing his valuable services here.

Lieutenant George Rice, in temporary command of the "Maha Nuddee," rendered essential service to the cause. Admirably handling his little vessel, he landed men on the beach to storm Stockades, covering their landing with his own guns, and at the storming of them, he was to be seen among the foremost ranks. In landing men, stores, and baggage, and ascending the narrow creeks of this river, the "Maha Nuddee," has proved most useful.

Senior Lieutenant J. Dorville, of my Flag Ship, commanded the Naval Brigade at the capture of Rangoon; and from the flattering manner in which the Commander of the Forces has been pleased to speak of his services, I feel assured he must be honorably mentioned in the Lieutenant-General's Despatches.

Among those that have fallen victims in the service of their Country upon this occasion, it is my painful duty to record that of the Rev. Thomas T. Baker, Chaplain of Her Majesty's Ship "Fox." Incessantly employed in administering to the wounded and dying, and in burying the dead, he fell a victim to the prevailing epidemic, cholera, on the 16th instant, leaving, I am informed, a widow and young family, who were wholly dependent on him for support.

I was an eye-witness to the indefatigable exertions of Dr. Minter, Surgeon of the "Fox," at the Hospital on shore, and on board the "Tubal Cain." Dr. Montgomery, Superintending Surgeon, expressed himself to me as being under the greatest obligations to him for his assistance. In addition to the duties performed by Dr. Minter at the Hospital, he had those of his own ship to attend to, where the cholera had broken out with some virulence. Mr. Seecombe, Assistant Surgeon of the "Hermes," was also employed at the Hospital on shore.

In conclusion, I beg to remark that the whole conduct of the Officers and men under my Orders, employed on the present Expedition, has been such as reflects much credit on themselves, and the Services to which they respectively belong.

I have the honor to be,
My Lord Marquis,
Your Lordship's Most Obedt., Humble Servant,
(Signed) CHARLES JNO. AUSTEN,
Rear Admiral, Commander-in-Chief.

No. 1.

From Lieutenant General H. GODWIN, C. B.,
Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan and Tenasserim,

To C. ALLEN, Esquire,
Secy. to the Government of India, Foreign Department, Fort William.

Moulmein, 6th April 1852.

Sir,

I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council, that the force under my command left the Sand Heads on the 20th of March, for the Rangoon River, the place of rendezvous for the combined Force, from Bengal and Madras, where it arrived on the 2nd of April,

In obedience to my instructions, a flag of Truce was immediately sent up to Rangoon, to inquire if any communication had arrived from the Court of Ava, in reply to the terms sent up to the Burmese Government, for the adjustment of the violences committed on the subjects of Her Majesty by the authorities at Rangoon. The flag was in charge of Captain Latter of the Bengal Army, and conveyed in the Hon'ble Company's Steamer "Proserpine," Commander Brooking.

On reaching the stockades that guarded the river on both its banks, the flag was fired on, and it was only by the excellent arrangement and brave conduct of Commander Brooking that his ship extricated herself, inflicting on the enemy a severe chastisement, by blowing up a powder magazine, and destroying many men.

I found, on my arrival at the rendezvous, that the Madras Division had not made its appearance, nor were there tidings of it, so that I resolved to go to Moulmein, and make arrangements for the capture of Martaban.

In the Rangoon river, I found that Rear-Admiral Austen, C. B., the Naval Commander-in-Chief, had just arrived from Penang in H. M.'s Steamer "Rattler." His Excellency and Commodore Lambert immediately came on board the "Hermes," Commander Fishbourne, in which I had my Head-Quarters, when it was agreed, in conference, that the Admiral would accompany me to Moulmein, with H. M.'s Steamers "Hermes," "Rattler" and "Salamander," sending in advance to the mouth of the Martaban river the H. C. Steamer "Proserpine." We accordingly left the Rangoon river at daybreak on the 3rd April, reached Moulmein the next day at noon. Orders were immediately issued for the Troops to be in readiness for embarkation by 4 P. M. and by 9 that evening a wing of H. M.'s 18th R. I., a wing of H. M.'s 80th Regt., a wing of the 26th Madras Native Infantry, with details of Bengal European Artillery, and Madras Sappers, in all about 1,400 men, were on board.

Martaban stands on a noble sheet of water, with a river line of defences of about 800 yards. Inland lies a large Pagoda, a wall running along the whole front, with an ascent from the water's edge of about 500 feet, on the top of which small Pagodas stand, the slope being partially covered with fine trees and close jungle.

Arrangements were made for the attack at day-break of the 5th. The Rear-Admiral made every disposition possible, in waters full of shoals and violent currents, for bombarding the position with his five Steamers, and to cover the landing of the Troops. It was the admiration of every one to witness the noble manner the "Rattler" worked her way to within 200 yards of the wall, and close to the Pagoda, doing tremendous execution. I changed from the "Rattler" at six o'clock to superintend the landing of the Troops, and went on board the "Proserpine," a smaller vessel, with my Staff. Colonel Reignolds commanded the attack. At half past 6, the Steamer opened fire, and at 7 the Troops were in the boats, and landed by the indefatigable exertions of Commander Brooking, under a smart fire of musketry and guns. Soon was the storming party under the walls, and over them, with less loss than I thought possible. Lieut. Col. Reignolds immediately ascended to the Pagodas on the height, and took possession of them after some skirmishing with the Enemy.

At 8 A. M. Martaban was our own, and considering the Enemy's position and numbers, which report gives at 5,000 men, we have got it very cheaply.

I have to ask His Lordship's, and the Council of India's, best consideration of the services of Lieut.-Col. Reignolds, of the 18th R. I., to whom is due the credit of this day's endurance of severe fatigue and privation under a burning sun.

To Captain Gillespie, in command of the Grenadiers of the 18th R. I., whom I saw first on the wall, the soldier following him receiving three wounds, to Captain Campbell, who commanded the wing of the 18th R. I.; to Major Lockhart, in command of the wing of the 80th Foot, to Lieut.-Col. Johnston, commanding the wing of the 26th Regt., Madras Native Infantry, and to Capt. Randall, commanding the Detachment of Madras Sappers and Miners, my warm approbation is due.

I beg also to recommend to the consideration of His Lordship in Council, the Assistant Adjutant General of the Force, Captain Mayhew, whose exertions, during the disembarkation of the Troops, tended greatly to its success, as also my Aides-de-Camp, Lieut. Chads, of H. M.'s 64th Regt., and Lieut. Lambert, of the 56th N. I., son of the Commodore, who were highly useful to me during the whole day.

Major Fraser, the Commanding Engineer of the Force, and Major Turton, in command of the Bengal Artillery, were with me the whole day, but from the nature of the Operations, their particular services were not called into play, though they had made every disposition for the efficiency of their respective departments.

It will be obvious from the foregoing how greatly the success of the Operations I have detailed has depended on the co-operation of the sister branch of the Service. His Excellency, Rear-Admiral Austen, C. B., has throughout afforded me the most cordial assistance. Her Majesty's Steamers "Rattler," "Hermes" and "Salamander," worked in concert with the Troops throughout the day.

On my departure to-morrow, I intend to take with me to the Rangoon River the wings of the 18th and 80th Regiments, and the company of Bengal Artillery, and the detachments of Madras Sappers and Miners, doing duty at Moulmein.

In conjunction with Lieut.-Col. Bogle, the Commissioner of these Provinces, I have put the 26th Madras N. I., and a Company of European Madras Artillery, with a suitable Battery of Guns, as a Garrison at Martaban, relievable from Moulmein, when it may be thought desirable.

In addition to which a War Steamer has been placed by the Naval Commander-in-Chief on the Station. These arrangements are, I think, adequate to the protection of the place, and will, I trust, meet with the approbation of the Government of India.

In conclusion, I beg to remark that I am greatly indebted to Lieut.-Col. Bogle, who accompanied me during the whole of the operations of the 5th, and was, from his local knowledge, of much use to me.

I have, &c.,

FROM LIEUTENANT-GENERAL H. GODWIN, C. B.,
Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan and Tenasserim,

To C. ALLEN, Esq.,
Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of India, Foreign Department.

SIR,

On my return from Martaban on the 8th of April, I had the satisfaction to find the Madras Division had arrived on the previous day, so that no time had been lost by my going to Martaban.

It was arranged that during my absence at Moulmein, Commodore Lambert should, on the 5th instant, aided by some Troops, destroy the Stockades on the Rangoon River, which had long been troublesome, and had fired on the "Flag of Truce." This had been so effectually performed, as to leave hardly a sign of where the Stockades had stood.

I shall now have the satisfaction of acquainting you, for the information of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council, of the proceedings of this Force, inclusive of the Capture of the Great Dagon Pagoda at Rangoon, and the consequent fall of all around it.

The 9th of April I devoted to making every disposition for the landing of the Troops, and to becoming acquainted with the Heads of Departments of the Madras Division. I informed the Admiral on the evening of that day, that my preparations were complete, and His Excellency proceeded up the River the next day, close off Rangoon. On the 11th, the Admiral moved opposite the old Town, with the intention the next morning to bombard the whole line of Stockades on both banks of the River; but some of the Flotilla, getting very near the shore, were fired on, which brought on a return from our side, and ended in the general destruction of the whole line of Defences, though the fire of the Enemy proved fatal to many on board the Shipping. The Admiral and Commodore took a most distinguished part in the operations, landing and setting fire to all around them. This powerful attack, from the Steam Frigates of both Her Majesty's and the Hon'ble Company's Navy, completely cleared the ground for nearly a mile for our landing. On Monday the 12th, at daybreak, the Troops were ready, and by about 7 A. M. I had landed Her Majesty's 51st Light Infantry, the 18th Royal Irish, the 40th Bengal Native Infantry, and part of my Artillery. The Bengal Guns, under Major Reid, were ordered to move in advance, covered by four Companies of the 51st Light Infantry. They had not proceeded far, however, when on opening some rising ground to our right, Guns opened on us, and shortly after skirmishers showed themselves in the Jungle. This was a new mode of fighting with the Burmese, no instance having occurred last War of their attacking our flanks, or leaving their Stockades, that I remember ever to have taken place. I make this remark as they are now not only good shots, but bold in their operations, and clever in selecting their ground and covering themselves. Our casualties for the past three days will prove it, our dress exposing us, and their garb and color concealing them.

On looking at the Stockade whence the fire came, I perceived it was a strong work, which used to be called in the last War the "White House" Picquet, a very strong position, and just in the way of our advance. A Battery of four Guns was immediately opened on it by Majors Reid and Oakes, the whole being under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Foord, Commandant of that Arm. The fire of these Guns was very effective. A storming party was formed of four Companies of the 51st Light Infantry, under Lieutenant-Colonel St. Maur, with the Madras Sappers under Major H. Fraser, Commanding Engineer, and advanced under cover of a Jungle; on getting through which, the Musketry was so steady and effective from the Stockades, and adjoining buildings, that a great many of our party were killed and wounded, amongst whom were several Officers. I have to deplore the temporary loss of Lieutenant-Colonel Bogle, the Commissioner of the Tenasserim Provinces, who was very bravely attending the Army to witness its operation. Major Fraser took the Ladders to the Stockade most gallantly, and alone mounted the defences of the Enemy, where his example soon brought around him the storming party, which carried the Stockade; but at very severe loss on our part.

It was my intention to move on to the main object of our operations; but on looking around me at the complete exhaustion of the storming party, it now being 11 o'clock, under a sun that may be understood, since Major Oakes, of the Madras Artillery, was struck down by it, at his Battery, and died; Brevet Major Griffith, Madras Army, whilst conveying an order, died on the road. Lieut.-Colonel Foord, Commandant of Artillery, was nearly a victim to the heat, and obliged to quit the field. Brigadier Warren and Lieut.-Colonel St. Maur also suffered greatly: so that under such destruction I resolved to halt where I was, and concentrate the Force in as strong a position as the country admitted of. We were teazed by parties of the Enemy hovering around us till the night closed, when all was quiet under the protection of our Guns, which had been brought up to the front.

On Tuesday, the 13th, it was reported the heavy Battery Guns could not be landed, and with me, before the middle of that day; and also that rations for the Troops could not be prepared in time to enable me to advance. I therefore held my position till the next morning.

His Lordship in Council knows well the spot where I proposed to force my way into the Great Pagoda; and the road I was about to move on entirely turned all the defences of this real stronghold. The present position of Rangoon is entirely altered since the last War, within a few years, the old Town, which stood on the River bank, has been utterly destroyed, its bricks now lying in heaps on its site. A new Town has been formed about a mile and quarter from the River, it is nearly a square, with a bund or mud-wall about sixteen feet high and eight broad; a ditch runs along each side of the square, and on the North side, where the Pagoda stands, it has been very cleverly worked into the defences, to which it forms a sort of Citadel. The distance from the Pagoda to the South entrance of the Town is about ¾ of a mile, and it is something more than that breadth from East to West. The old road from the River to the Pagoda, comes up to the South Gate running through the new Town, and it was by this road the Burmese had settled that we should attack it,—and where they had made every preparation to receive us, having armed the defences with nearly a hundred pieces of cannon, and other missiles, and with a Garrison of at least ten thousand men. The attempt to assault on this side, would, I am convinced, from the steady way the Burmese defend their works, have cost us half our Force.

On Wednesday the 14th, the Troops were under arms, at 5 A. M., all in as fine a temper as ever men were. Our march was to the North-west, through thick Jungle, four light Guns, 9 p., their flanks protected by 2 Companies of H. M.'s 80th Regiment, the rest of the Wing of that Corps following with two more Guns, and the 18th Royal Irish and the 40th B. N. I. formed the advance. The 51st L. I. and the 35th M. N. I. were in reserve, the 9th M. N. I. keeping open the communication with the Shipping. We proceeded in this order for about a mile, when we opened the Great

Pagoda, and its fire was turned on us. An excellent position for two Guns was taken by Major Turton, to our left flank—these were left under the command of Major Montgomerie, of the Madras Artillery, who served them well. The ground to the front getting very difficult, barely admitted of the 80th and Royal Irish occupying it in close order. We had now completely turned the Enemy's position, having passed their Stockaded Town, and got opposite the East side of the Great Pagoda—our main object. Major Turton informed me that he had a favorable position to place in Battery his heavy Guns; but it took some time to bring them up—a service in which the Navy Brigade, of about 120 men, under the command of Lieutenant Dorville, of H. M.'s Frigate "Fox," assisted by the Artillery, rendered their invaluable aid, under a heavy fire of Guns and Wall Pieces from the Great Pagoda and Town, from which they suffered severely: whilst this was going on, the Enemy's Artillery had got the range of our crowded position, and their Skirmishers had somewhat closed on us, and it took 500 men to keep down their fire. The practice of the heavy Battery, under Major Back, was very effective. My intention was to have stormed the Pagoda at noon; but at a little after 11, Captain Latter, of the Bengal Army, my Interpreter, assured me he felt confident from what he could see of the East entrance of the Pagoda, on which our Battery was playing, that the entrance was clear, and that he was prepared to show the way. As our people were dropping fast where we stood, I determined on an immediate assault. The storming party was formed of the Wing of H. M.'s 80th Regiment under Major Lockhart, two Companies of the Royal Irish under Lieutenant Hewitt, and of two Companies of the 40th B. N. I. under Lieutenant White, the whole commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Coote, of the 18th R. I.,—Captain Latter accompanying the party to show the road. The advance to the East entrance of the Pagoda was of about 800 yards, which the Troops crossed in a most steady manner under the fire of the walls crowded with the Enemy, the remainder of the Force following closely. When the storming party reached the steps, a tremendous rush was made to the upper terrace, and a deafening cheer told that the Pagoda no longer belonged to the Burmese. The Enemy ran in confusion from the Southern and Western Gates, where they were met by fire of the Steamers. All the country around has fallen with the Pagoda, and, I understand, the once strong post of Kemmendine has been abandoned and destroyed.

In this united service, there has been not only a cordial co-operation between the Army and Navy, but so much good-heartedness, that their joint efforts have tended to secure the rapid success of this Expedition. I cannot presume to say of Rear Admiral Austen, C. B., Commanding the Navy, more than to express my admiration and respect for his qualities, and to thank him for his able and never-failing assistance. Commodore Lambert, whose spirit never is at rest whilst anything is to be done, and whose heart is ever ready to accomplish what he undertakes, has my cordial thanks and warmest gratitude. I particularly wish to draw the attention of His Lordship in Council to Commander Fishbourne, of H. M.'s Steamer "Hermes," who from the first fitting out of the Expedition in Calcutta to the close of these Operations, has been indefatigable in assisting in the embarkation of Stores and Troops, and in removing difficulties, and finding resources which alone enabled the Expedition to sail at the time appointed; and nothing will give me such satisfaction as his aid, were a forward movement to be made hereafter.

My most difficult task now commences—that of recommending to the protection of the Governor General in Council a number of brave men, who have had opportunities of distinguishing themselves in a service where the utmost emulation and gallant devotion were shown by all.

I beg the Most Noble the Governor General's consideration of the services of Brigadier Elliott, who was conspicuous in every place where he could be useful; of Lieutenant-Colonel Reignold, who commands the Bengal Brigade, in consequence of Brigadier Warren's prostration by the sun, and who has borne a very large share in these Operations, including Martaban; of Lieutenant-Colonel Coote, of the 18th R. I., who commanded the storming party, when he was severely wounded; of Lieutenant-Colonel Thomson, Commanding the 40th Bengal N. I., in the assault; of Major Lockhart, Commanding the Wing of H. M.'s 80th, on the same occasion; of Major Fraser, Commanding Engineer of the Force, who not only distinguished himself most gallantly at the "White House" Stockade, but whose indefatigable exertions have never for a moment ceased; of Major Turton, who commanded the Artillery, after Lieutenant-Colonel Foord's retirement from illness, and whose labours in his department have been the cause of his suffering, I regret to say, under severe indisposition at the present moment; of Majors Reid, of the Bengal, and Montgomerie of the Madras, Artillery; of Captain Rundall, Commanding the Sappers and Miners,—to all of whom I am deeply indebted.

The Assistant Adjutant General of the Force, Captain Mayhew, was everywhere present during these three days' Operations; and the assistance he has rendered me on all occasions has been very valuable. Major Allan, the Assistant Quarter Master General, was severely wounded at the "White House" Stockade, since when Major Boulderson, my Deputy Judge Advocate General, has been performing his duties, and has rendered essential assistance since the Operations commenced. I beg to bring all three to the notice of Government.

The Officers Commanding Brigades have recommended to my notice the valuable aid they have received from their respective Brigade Majors—Captain Call of the 18th R. I. and Captain Smith of the 13th M. N. I.; and Major Turton has brought to my attention the indefatigable exertions of Lieutenant Robertson, the Deputy Commissary of Ordnance, in landing his Guns and Stores.

I beg leave to bring to His Lordship's notice the assistance I have received from my Aides-de-Camp Lieutenant Chads, of H. M.'s 64th Regiment, who was wounded at the "White House" Stockade, but did not leave me during the Operations, and Lieutenant Lambert, of the 56th N. I., who, after great exertion, was one of the victims to the sun on that day, which obliges him to return to Calcutta, and who will convey these Despatches.

In conclusion, I regret that the order of the landing of the Troops did not afford me an opportunity of availing myself of the services of the 9th Madras N. I. and 35th M. N. I., in the front, but they tended greatly to give freedom to my leading column, and will, from their soldierly bearing, doubtless do honor to the distinguished Service to which they belong, when they are brought more closely under fire.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

NOTIFICATION.

Fort William, Foreign Department, The 1st May 1852.

The Most Noble the Governor General in Council directs that the following Extract of a further Despatch received from Lieutenant-General Godwin, C. B., Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan and Tenasserim Provinces, dated the 22nd ultimo, be published for general information:

"I sincerely regret having omitted to bring to "the notice of the Most Noble the Governor "General in Council, in my Despatch, No. 3, of "the 18th instant, how much I am indebted to "Mr. Crisp, Junior, for his able assistance in "conducting the Army through very difficult "ground, on its progress to the Great Pagoda, "which he performed under the fire of the "Enemy with great coolness and courage.

"I rejoice greatly to say the wounded are "doing very well; the skill, the labour, the atten-"tion, and the humanity of Superintending "Surgeon Montgomerie, and of the Medical De-"partment generally under him, call for the "warmest approbation of the Government.

"Major Fraser, Commanding Engineer, has "been indefatigable in his exertions in his own "Department, and indeed every where, to get "this place into some order and cleanliness.

"He has requested me to bring to the notice "of the Governor General in Council the gallant "conduct of 2nd Lieutenant W. S. Trevor, "Assistant Field Engineer, who was the first on "the ladder, and there wounded, at the White "House Stockade, on the 12th,—as also of Lieu-"tenants Craster, Bengal, and Mayne, Madras "Engineers, who were very forward on the "same occasion.

"My greatest pleasure, however, is to bring be-"fore His Lordship in Council the admirable "conduct and temper of this Force—its disci-"pline and regularity of demeanour are unex-"ceptionable."

The Governor General in Council has great satisfaction in acknowledging the skill and attention exhibited by Superintending Surgeon Montgomerie, and he rejoices to learn that by the exertions of the Medical Department the wounded men are doing well.

The Governor General in Council begs to offer his thanks to the Officers now brought under his notice; to Lieutenant Trevor and to Lieutenant Craster, Bengal Engineers; to Lieutenant Mayne, Madras Engineers, as well as to Mr. Crisp, Junior, whose service has been noticed by the Lieutenant-General.

General Orders by the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council.

Fort William, 29th April 1852.

No. 276 of 1852.—Assistant Surgeon William Aitken, M. D., of the Madras Establishment, is permitted to proceed hence to Europe, on furlough, on Medical Certificate.

Fort William, 30th April 1852.

No. 277 of 1852.—The following Notification from the Foreign Department, is re-published in General Orders:

Foreign Department,
Fort William, the 28th April 1852.

Notification.—The Governor General of India in Council, having failed to obtain redress from the Court of Ava for injuries which had been inflicted on British Subjects, in gross violation of existing Treaties, was compelled to declare that reparation should be exacted by force of Arms.

To that end an Expedition was immediately prepared and despatched to the Coast, in the hope that a blow promptly struck against the Burmese Power might possibly lead to a concession of the just and moderate demands advanced by the Government of India, and might thus avert the necessity for engaging in extended and costly war.

The Governor General in Council has had the satisfaction of publishing, for general information, Despatches, which announce the success of the Expedition, in the capture of Martaban, in the destruction of the formidable defences constructed along the River, and in the assault and occupation of the fortifications of Rangoon.

The Governor General in Council cannot employ terms too strong in expressing his unqualified approbation of the brilliant service which has thus been performed, and his gratitude to those by whose joint exertions it has been achieved.

His admiration is due equally to the perfect cordiality and concert with which Navy and Army have acted together, to the gallantry which has been conspicuous in the Field, and to the fortitude and patience with which all have endured, without a murmur, a fierceness of climate, whose deadly influence is unhappily too well attested by the number of those who have fallen victims to its effects.

The Governor General in Council especially desires to offer to the Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Naval Forces in these Seas his warm acknowledgments of the ready co-operation, and of the very effective aid which His Excellency has afforded to the Government of India, by the powerful Squadron under his command, whose operations he has so ably directed, and in whose services he has borne so distinguished a part.

To Lieut-Genl. Godwin, Commanding the Forces in Ava, the Governor General in Council begs leave to tender his most full and cordial thanks, for the manner in which, by his intrepidity, his energy and ability, he has brought the Military Operations of the Force to their present successful issue; and to congratulate him upon having thus won fresh and higher honor upon the same scene on which he formerly gained so much distinction.

The Governor General in Council has great satisfaction in publicly rendering to Commodore Lambert his sincere acknowledgments of the promptitude with which he gave his assistance to the Government of India, of his constant exertions on its behalf during a trying service, and especially of the prominent share he has now borne in the destruction of the River defences; thus materially facilitating the movements of the Squadron and the ultimate success of the attack.

The best thanks of the Governor General in Council are due to Brigadier Elliott, Commanding the Madras Brigade, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Reignolds, who, after having taken a part in every operation of the Troops, has assumed the command of the Bengal Brigade, from which illness, which the Governor General in Council regrets, has removed Brigadier Warren.

The Governor General in Council is happy to record his appreciation of the essential service rendered by Captain Lynch, the senior officer of the Indian Navy, to whose ability, judgment, and discretion His Excellency the Rear Admiral has borne his testimony on this occasion.

And His Lordship in Council at the same time desires to mark his sense of the services of Commander Mellersh, of Commander Fishbourne, by whose aid the Government has largely profited; of Commander Tarleton, Commander Luard, Lieutenant Rice, R. N., Captain Niblett, of H. C. S. "Phlegethon," and of Surgeon Minter, whose personal exertions have been severally commended by His Excellency.

The Governor General in Council has to add his marked acknowledgments of the valuable assistance afforded during the attack on the land defences of Rangoon by Lieutenant Dorville, R. N. and the Naval Brigade under his orders.

The Governor General in Council has further remarked with gratification the distinguished conduct of Captain Brooking, of H. C. Steamer "Proserpine." His Lordship in Council wishes to express his warm approbation of conduct which has elicited the applause, both of the Admiral, and of the General who witnessed it.

The conspicuous gallantry of Major Fraser, commanding the Engineers, and his indefatigable exertions since the expedition was resolved upon, more especially in the field, command the highest praise and the best thanks of the Supreme Government.

To Lieutenant Colonel Foord, Commanding the Artillery; to Major Turton and Major Reid, of the Bengal Artillery; to Major Montgomerie, of the Madras Artillery; to Lieutenant Colonel Coote, of Her Majesty's 18th, who has been severely wounded; to Lieutenant Colonel Thomson, of the 40th Native Infantry; to Lieutenant Colonel Johnson, of 26th Madras Native Infantry; and to Major Lockhart, of Her Majesty's 80th Regiment; to Captain Mayhew, Deputy Adjutant General, whose value is specially remarked; to Captain Allan, Deputy Quarter Master General; to Captain Call and Captain Smith, Brigade Majors; to Lieutenant Robertson, Deputy Commissary of Ordnance; to Captain Gillespie, who led the assault at Martaban, and Captain Campbell, of Her Majesty's 18th; to Captain Randall, Commanding Madras Sappers and Miners; to Captain Chads and Lieutenant Lambert, Aides-de-Camp to the Lieutenant General, the services of all of whom have been noticed with approbation by General Godwin, the Governor General in Council begs to offer his earnest thanks.

The Governor General in Council has to offer his thanks to Lieutenant Colonel Bogle, Commissioner of the Tenasserim Provinces, for the valuable aid he rendered to General Godwin in connexion with the attack upon Martaban; and His Lordship in Council particularly desires to record his approbation of the energetic and successful exertions of the Commissioner in giving effect to the preparations of the Government for ensuring, as far as possible, the health and comfort of the troops to be employed upon the expedition.

Captain Latter, who has discharged his functions hitherto to the entire satisfaction of the Government, has added to his claims by the duty which he well performed in the assault on the Pagoda at Rangoon.

Not only to the Officers he has thus specially named, but to all the Officers, to the Non-Commissioned Officers, of whatever designation, and to the Soldiers and Sailors of the force, the Governor General in Council desires to convey his true and hearty thanks for the alacrity, the endurance, the bravery and good conduct they have displayed during the several operations in which they have been engaged.

The Governor General in Council deeply laments to know that our success has not been achieved without the sacrifice of valued lives.

He deplores the loss of Major Oakes and of Brevet Major Griffiths, of the Madras Artillery; of Lieutenant Armstrong, of H. M.'s 51st Regiment; of Lieutenant Donaldson, of Bengal Engineers; of Lieutenant Doran, of H. M.'s 18th, who nobly perished in the front of the assault; and of the Reverend Mr. Baker, Chaplain of H. M.'s Ship "Fox," and other brave men who died in the performance of their several duties in the service of their country.

It shall be the first care of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council, to bring the conduct and services of the Naval and Military forces on the Coast of Burmah under the most favourable notice of Her Majesty's Government and of the Hon'ble East India Company.

By order of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 30th April 1852.

The following Act, passed by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 30th April 1852, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. XXII. OF 1852.

To avoid doubts as to the validity of certain decisions in summary suits for arrears of rent, and of certain sales of Putnee Talooks and other saleable tenures.

Whereas by Regulation VIII. of 1831 of the Bengal Code the hearing and decision of summary suits or claims relating to arrears or exactions of rents were transferred from the Judges of the Zillah or City Courts to the Collectors of the several Districts; and whereas, by Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Bengal Code, the superintendence of the sales of Putnee Talooks and other saleable tenures of the class specified in Clause 1, Section VIII. Regulation VIII. of 1819 of the same code, was transferred to the Collector or Deputy Collector of Land Revenue, or Head Assistant to the Collector or Deputy Collector, subject to an appeal as therein provided; and whereas by Act VIII. of 1835 the conduct of sales of Talooks or other saleable tenures in execution of summary decrees for rent, in conformity with Regulation VII. of 1799 of the same Code, was transferred to the Collectors of Land Revenue; and whereas doubts have been entertained in some instances as to the District within which such summary suits or claims should have been decided, and such sales made, by reason that the jurisdiction of the several Zillah and City Courts is not conterminous with the jurisdiction of the several Collectors of Land Revenue, It is enacted as follows:

I. No order or decision already made in any such summary suit, and no such sale as aforesaid, already made, which has not been questioned before a Court of competent judicature before the passing of this Act, on the ground of having been decided or made by a Collector of Land Revenue, his deputy or duly authorized assistant, having no jurisdiction therein, shall be liable to be annulled or disputed on that ground.

No. 70, Foreign Department, 1st May 1852.—The Most Noble the Governor General in Council directs that the following Extract of a further Despatch received from Lieutenant-General Godwin, C. B., Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan, and Tenasserim Provinces, dated the 22nd ultimo, be published for general information:

"I sincerely regret having omitted to bring to "the notice of the Most Noble the Governor "General in Council, in my Despatch, No. 3, of "the 18th instant, how much I am indebted to "Mr. Crisp, Junior, for his able assistance in "conducting the Army through very difficult "ground, on its progress to the Great Pagoda, "which he performed under the fire of the "Enemy with great coolness and courage.

"I rejoice greatly to say the wounded are "doing very well; the skill, the labour, the attention, and the humanity of Superintending "Surgeon Montgomerie, and of the Medical Department generally under him, call for the "warmest approbation of the Government.

"Major Fraser, Commanding Engineer, has "been indefatigable in his exertions in his own "Department, and indeed everywhere, to get "this place into some order and cleanliness.

"He has requested me to bring to the notice "of the Governor General in Council the gallant "conduct of 2nd Lieutenant W. S. Trevor, "Assistant Field Engineer, who was the first on "the ladder, and there wounded, at the White "House Stockade, on the 12th,—as also of Lieu-"tenants Craster, Bengal, and Mayne, Madras "Engineers, who were very forward on the "same occasion.

"My greatest pleasure, however, is to bring be-"fore His Lordship in Council the admirable "conduct and temper of this Force—its disci-"pline and regularity of demeanour are unex-"ceptionable."

The Governor General in Council has great satisfaction in acknowledging the skill and attention exhibited by Superintending Surgeon Montgomerie, and he rejoices to learn that by the exertions of the Medical Department the wounded men are doing well.

The Governor General in Council begs to offer his thanks to the Officers now brought under his notice; to Lieutenant Trevor and to Lieutenant Craster, Bengal Engineers; and to Lieutenant Mayne, Madras Engineers, as well as to Mr. Crisp, Junior, whose service has been noticed by the Lieutenant-General.

By Order of the Governor General of India in Council,

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 30th April 1852.

The following Act, passed by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 30th April 1852, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. XXII. OF 1852.

To avoid doubts as to the validity of certain decisions in summary suits for arrears of rent, and of certain sales of Putnee Talooks and other saleable tenures.

Whereas by Regulation VIII. of 1831 of the Bengal Code the hearing and decision of summary suits or claims relating to arrears or exactions of rents were transferred from the Judges of the Zillah or City Courts to the Collectors of the several Districts; and whereas, by Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Bengal Code, the superintendence of the sales of Putnee Talooks and other saleable tenures of the class specified in Clause 1, Section VIII. Regulation VIII. of 1819 of the same code, was transferred to the Collector or Deputy Collector of Land Revenue, or Head Assistant to the Collector or Deputy Collector, subject to an appeal as therein provided; and whereas by Act VIII. of 1835 the conduct of sales of Talooks or other saleable tenures in execution of summary decrees for rent, in conformity with Regulation VII. of 1799 of the same Code, was transferred to the Collectors of Land Revenue; and whereas doubts have been entertained in some instances as to the District within which such summary suits or claims should have been decided, and such sales made, by reason that the jurisdiction of the several Zillah and City Courts is not conterminous with the jurisdiction of the several Collectors of Land Revenue, It is enacted as follows:

I. No order or decision already made in any such summary suit, and no such sale as aforesaid, already made, which has not been questioned before a Court of competent Judicature before the passing of this Act, on the ground of having been decided or made by a Collector of Land Revenue, his deputy or duly authorized assistant, having no jurisdiction therein, shall be liable to be annulled or disputed on that ground.

I. Every decree or order in appeal of Her Majesty in Council, or of any Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, or of any Zillah or City Judge which shall be made after the passing of this Act, and also every such decree or order in appeal which has been made before the passing of this Act, and for the execution or enforcement whereof no petition has been presented, shall be enforced and executed by the Court which made the first decree or order appealed from, in the manner and according to the rules and laws applicable to the execution and enforcement of original decrees or orders made by such last mentioned Court.

An Act to amend the mode of procedure in the Courts of the Sudder Ameens and Moonsiffs in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and to extend the powers of Principal Sudder Ameens in appeals referred to them.

Whereas it is desirable that the mode of procedure in original suits in the Courts of the Sud-

I. Sections XIX., XXI., XXII., XXIV., XXVII., XXIX., XXXV. and XXXVII., Regulation XXIII. 1814, and Clauses 1, 2, 3 and 5, Section XXV. of the same Regulation, and Section LXXIII. of the same Regulation, so far as it extends Clauses 1, 2, 3 and 5, Section XXV. and Section XXXV. of the same Regulation to Sudder Ameens, Clause 5, Section V., and Clause 3, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831, and so much of Clause 3, Section VIII. of the said Regulation V. 1831, as relates to the Clauses and Sections of Regulation XXIII. 1814, hereinbefore mentioned, and Section VI. of the said Regulation V. 1831, except in so far as it rescinds Sections LVII., LVIII., and LIX. of the said Regulation XXIII. of 1814, are hereby repealed.

II. All laws and rules now in force relating to the mode of procedure in the trial and decision of original Civil Suits in the Courts of the Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens, shall also apply to and regulate the mode of procedure in the trial and decision of original Civil Suits in the Courts of the Sudder Ameens and Moonsiffs.

III. Sections XIII. and XXI. Regulation III. 1793, Sections VII. and XI., Regulation VII. 1795, Sections XVII. and XIX., Regulation II. 1803, Sections VIII. and IX. Regulation VII. 1832, as extended by Act XXI. 1850, shall be applicable to suits and cases in the Courts of the Moonsiffs. Clause 2, Section IV., Regulation XXVI. 1814, relating to reviews of judgment shall also be applicable to the Courts of Sudder Ameens and Moonsiffs. Provided always, that if a Sudder Ameen or Moonsiff shall be of opinion that a review of his judgment ought to be granted, he shall report the case to the Judge, who is hereby authorized to permit such review under the same rules as are prescribed by the existing Regulations with respect to similar applications to the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut.

IV. Every Sudder Ameen and Moonsiff shall have power and authority to try suits in which any Vakeel or Officer of his Court is a party, anything in Section VIII., Act VI. 1843, and in Clause 2, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831 to the contrary notwithstanding; and suits under Clause 1, Section XXX., Regulation II. 1819 may be referred to them by the Zillah Judge for trial and decision under the restrictions as to local jurisdiction and value of property mentioned in Clauses 1, 2 and 3, Section V., and Clause 2, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831.

V. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed so as to repeal or otherwise affect the rules regarding the dispensing with the use of stamp paper on certain documents in the Courts of the Moonsiffs contained in Clause 2, Section IX., Regulation V. 1831, or the rules for procuring the attendance of witnesses in the Courts of the Moonsiffs contained in Section II., Act XVII. 1845.

VI. Applicants for execution of decrees may file with their petitions an authenticated copy of the decree of which execution is sought to be taken out, and in such case it shall not be necessary to compare the petition with the decree contained in the original record of the suit, anything in Clause 7, Section XV. Regulation XXVI. 1814 to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. Original suits referred to a Sudder Ameen under Clause 2, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831, shall be tried and determined in conformity with the Provisions of Regulation XXIII. 1814, and of this Act, anything in Clause 3, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect the mode of procedure in any case pending in the Courts of the Sudder Ameens and Moonsiffs at the time of the passing of this Act, but the mode of procedure in all such cases shall be governed by the law in force previous to the passing of this Act.

IX. The powers given to Zillah and City Judges, by Act VII. 1838, to issue an injunction for the revision of an original decision which has been found erroneous or insufficient according to Clause 2, Section II., Regulation IX. 1831, are extended to Principal Sudder Ameens in regard to all appeals referred to them.

X. This Act shall be deemed to extend only to the Bengal Presidency, and to refer only to the Regulations of the Bengal Code.

Regulation XXVI. 1814 to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. Original suits referred to a Sudder Ameen under Clause 2, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831, shall be tried and determined in conformity with the Provisions of Regulation XXIII. 1814, and of this Act, anything in Clause 3, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect the mode of procedure in any case pending in the Courts of the Sudder Ameens and Moonsiffs at the time of the passing of this Act, but the mode of procedure in all such cases shall be governed by the law in force previous to the passing of this Act.

No. 333 of 1852.—The Governor General of India in Council has the greatest satisfaction in publicly announcing that the 3rd and 4th Regiments of Sikh Local Infantry, and the Ramgurh Light Infantry Battalion, together with the Cavalry and Artillery attached to it, have come forward voluntarily and entirely of their own accord, to proffer their services for employment beyond sea, in Burmah.

It has afforded the Governor General in Council the highest gratification to observe the soldierly feeling displayed by these Regiments, in thus volunteering for foreign service, and considering that these are local Regiments, engaged to serve within certain assigned limits, his Lordship in Council recognizes as doubly meritorious the spirit which has led them to ask leave to pass, not their own limits only, but those also of the Company's Territories, and to proceed by sea to the seat of war.

Should the war with Burmah be prolonged, and should distance and other considerations not prove to be impediments, the Governor General in Council will very gladly employ these Regiments, and with the most entire confidence in the gallantry and efficiency with which they will discharge their duty in the field.

These Regiments have been thus prominently mentioned, because the offers of their services were the earliest received by Government. But it is with the most cordial satisfaction, that the Governor General in Council is further enabled to notify for public information, that the 33d, the 37th and the 10th Regiments of Native Infantry, as well as the Regiment of Loodianah, have all come forward in the most creditable and soldier-like manner, eager to be the first to request that they may be employed on foreign service and sent by land or by sea to Burmah.

These four Regiments have set an honorable example to their comrades of the Line; and while accepting their loyal offer of service, the Governor General in Council assures them, that, should occasion arise, they shall have afforded to them the opportunity of evincing in Burmah that spirit and devotion to their duty, which their coming forward in the way they have done, abundantly proves them to possess.

IV. Every Sudder Ameen and Moonsiff shall have power and authority to try suits in which any Vakeel or Officer of his Court is a party, anything in Section VIII., Act VI. 1843, and in Clause 2, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831 to the contrary notwithstanding; and suits under Clause 1, Section XXX., Regulation II. 1819 may be referred to them by the Zillah Judge for trial and decision under the restrictions as to local jurisdiction and value of property mentioned in Clauses 1, 2 and 3, Section V., and Clause 2, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831.

Regulation XXVI. 1814 to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. Original suits referred to a Sudder Ameen under Clause 2, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831, shall be tried and determined in conformity with the Provisions of Regulation XXIII. 1814, and of this Act, anything in Clause 3, Section XV., Regulation V. 1831, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect the mode of procedure in any case pending in the Courts of the Sudder Ameens and Moonsiffs at the time of the passing of this Act, but the mode of procedure in all such cases shall be governed by the law in force previous to the passing of this Act.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, The 21st May, 1852.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 21st of May 1852.

ACT No. —— OF 1852.

An Act for the prevention of gambling in the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca.

Whereas the vice of gambling has much increased, and many gaming houses have been established within the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, for suppression of which the laws now in force are inadequate, It is enacted as follows:

I. Every person who within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, shall keep a common gaming house, or any room or other place used for the purposes of a common gaming house, or who shall have the care or management thereof, or shall in any manner conduct the business of any such common gaming house, either as banker, shroof, croupier or otherwise, shall, on conviction before the Court of Quarter Session of the said Settlement, be punishable by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding six calendar months, or, in the discretion of the Court, to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars; and in default of payment of such fine where a fine shall be imposed, the offender may be imprisoned by the said Court, with or without hard labor, either in the House of Correction or Her Majesty's Jail for any period not exceeding six calendar months.

II. In default of other evidence proving any house, room or place to be used as a common gaming house, it shall be enough, in support of the allegation in any charge, that any house, room or place is a common gaming house, to prove that such house, room or place is kept or used for playing therein at cards, dice, poh, or any unlawful game, and that a bank is kept there by any one or more of the players exclusively of the others, or that the chances of any game played therein are not alike favorable to all the players, including among the players, the banker or other person by whom the game is managed, or against whom the other players stake, play or bet; and every such house, room or place shall be deemed a common gaming house.

III. Every person who shall be found in any such common gaming house playing or gaming with cards, dice, counters, poh, money, or other instruments of gaming, or who shall be found there present during such playing or gaming, or for the purpose of gaming, or who shall be found gaming with cards, dice, counters, poh, money or other instruments of gaming in any public street, place or thoroughfare within the said Settlement, whether playing for any money, wager, stake or otherwise, shall be punishable on conviction before the Court of Quarter Session of the said Settlement, by imprisonment for any term not exceeding three calendar months, or, in the discretion of the said Court, by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, and in default of payment of such fine may be imprisoned by the said Court, with or without hard labor, either in the house of correction or in Her Majesty's Jail for any period not exceeding three calendar months.

IV. Any Justice of the Peace of the said Settlement, upon information laid before him on oath that there is reason to suspect any house, room or place within the said Settlement to be used as a common gaming house, may, by his warrant, give authority to any peace officer of the said Settlement to enter, with such assistance as may be found necessary, by night or by day, and by force if necessary, any such house, room or other place, and to take into custody all persons whom he finds therein whether or not then actually gaming; and to seize all instruments of gaming, and all monies and securities for money found therein; and to search all parts of the house, room or place which he shall have so entered, when he has reason to believe that any instruments of gaming are concealed therein, and to search also the persons of those whom he so takes into custody, and to seize and take possession of all cards, dice, pohs, counters and other instruments of gaming which he shall find upon such search.

V. When any cards, dice, pohs, gaming table or cloth, board or other instruments of gaming are found in any house, room or place, of which information has been given on oath to a Justice of the Peace that it is suspected of being used as a common gaming house, or about the person of any of those who are found therein, it shall be evidence, until the contrary is made to appear, that such house, room or place is used as a common gaming house, and that the persons found therein were there present for the purpose of gaming, although no play was actually seen by the peace officer, or any of his assistants.

VI. On conviction of any person for keeping, or being present for the purpose of gaming, in any such common gaming house, all the instruments of gaming found therein shall be destroyed by order of the Court of Quarter Session, which shall also order all or any of the securities for money and other articles seized, not being instruments of gaming, to be sold and converted into money, and the proceeds thereof, with all monies seized therein, to be forfeited; or, in its discretion may order any part thereof to be returned to the parties appearing to have been severally thereunto entitled.

VII. Any officer of police may arrest without warrant all persons whom he may see in the act of gaming in any public street, place or thoroughfare in the said Settlement, and seize all cards, dice, pohs, counters and instruments of gaming which he finds in their possession, which, on conviction of any of the parties, shall be forfeited.

VIII. It shall not be necessary in order to convict any person of keeping a common gaming house, or of being concerned in the management of any common gaming house, to prove that any person found playing at any game was playing for any money, wager or stake.

IX. Any person who shall have been concerned in any unlawful gaming, and who shall be examined as a witness before the said Court of Quarter Session on the trial of any person or persons for a breach of any of the provisions of this Act, and who upon such examination shall make true and faithful discovery, to the best of his or her knowledge, of all things as to which he or she shall be so examined, and who shall thereupon receive from the said Court a certificate in writing to that effect, shall be freed from all prosecutions under this Act for any thing done before that time in respect of such unlawful gaming.

X. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Act contained shall be held to apply to any game of mere skill played at licensed hotels, taverns or eating houses, or places of public resort within the said Settlement.

XI. Every person who shall, by any fraud, or unlawful device or ill practice in playing at or with cards, dice, or other game, or in bearing a part of the stakes, wagers or adventures, or in betting on the sides or hands of them that do play, or in wagering on the event of any game, sport, pastime or exercise, win from any other person, for himself, or any other or others, any sum of money or valuable thing, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining such money or valuable thing from such other person by a false pretence, with intent to cheat or defraud such person of the same, and, being convicted thereof, shall be punished accordingly.

XII. No conviction or other proceeding before the said Court of Quarter Session under this Act shall be quashed, reversed or set aside, or adjudged void or insufficient for want of form, or be removed by Certiorari into Her Majesty's Supreme Court.

XIII. The Court of Quarter Session shall on conviction have power to direct any portion, not exceeding one-fourth of any fine which shall be levied under the provisions of this Act, or any part of the monies or proceeds of articles seized in any common gaming house and ordered to be forfeited, to be paid to an informer, and the balance of such fines and monies, or the whole thereof as the case may be, shall be applied to the use of the municipal fund of the station within the said Settlement at which the same shall have been taken.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 21st day of August next.

Fort William, Home Department. Legislative, The 21st May, 1852.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 21st of May 1852.

ACT No. —— OF 1852.

An Act for the prevention of gambling in the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca.

Whereas the vice of gambling has much increased, and many gaming houses have been established within the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, for suppression of which the laws now in force are inadequate, It is enacted as follows:

I. Every person who within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, shall keep a common gaming house, or any room or other place used for the purposes of a common gaming house, or who shall have the care or management thereof, or shall in any manner conduct the business of any such common gaming house, either as banker, shroof, croupier or otherwise, shall, on conviction before the Court of Quarter Session of the said Settlement, be punishable by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding six calendar months, or, in the discretion of the Court, to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in default of payment of such fine where a fine shall be imposed, the offender may be imprisoned by the said Court, with or without hard labor, either in the House of Correction or Her Majesty's Jail for any period not exceeding six calendar months.

II. In default of other evidence proving any house, room or place to be used as a common gaming house, it shall be enough, in support of the allegation in any charge, that any house, room or place is a common gaming house, to prove that such house, room or place is kept or used for playing therein at cards, dice, poh, or any unlawful game, and that a bank is kept there by any one or more of the players exclusively of the others, or that the chances of any game played therein are not alike favorable to all the players, including among the players, the banker or other person by whom the game is managed, or against whom the other players stake, play or bet; and every such house, room or place shall be deemed a common gaming house.

III. Every person who shall be found in any such common gaming house playing or gaming with cards, dice, counters, poh, money, or other instruments of gaming, or who shall be found there present during such playing or gaming, or for the purpose of gaming, or who shall be found gaming with cards, dice, counters, poh, money or other instruments of gaming in any public street, place or thoroughfare within the said Settlement, whether playing for any money, wager, stake or otherwise, shall be punishable on conviction before the Court of Quarter Session of the said Settlement, by imprisonment for any term not exceeding three calendar months, or, in the discretion of the said Court, by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, and in default of payment of such fine may be imprisoned by the said Court, with or without hard labor, either in the house of correction or in Her Majesty's Jail for any period not exceeding three calendar months.

IV. Any Justice of the Peace of the said Settlement, upon information laid before him on oath that there is reason to suspect any house, room or place within the said Settlement to be used as a common gaming house, may, by his warrant, give authority to any peace officer of the said Settlement to enter, with such assistance as may be found necessary, by night or by day, and by force if necessary, any such house, room or other place, and to take into custody all persons whom he finds therein whether or not then actually gaming; and to seize all instruments of gaming, and all monies and securities for money found therein; and to search all parts of the house, room or place which he shall have so entered, when he has reason to believe that any instruments of gaming are concealed therein, and to search also the persons of those whom he so takes into custody, and to seize and take possession of all cards, dice, pohs, counters and other instruments of gaming which he shall find upon such search.

V. When any cards, dice, pohs, gaming table or cloth, board or other instruments of gaming are found in any house, room or place, of which information has been given on oath to a Justice of the Peace that it is suspected of being used as a common gaming house, or about the person of any of those who are found therein, it shall be evidence, until the contrary is made to appear, that such house, room or place is used as a common gaming house, and that the persons found therein were there present for the purpose of gaming, although no play was actually seen by the peace officer, or any of his assistants.

VI. On conviction of any person for keeping, or being present for the purpose of gaming, in any such common gaming house, all the instruments of gaming found therein shall be destroyed by order of the Court of Quarter Session, which shall also order all or any of the securities for money and other articles seized, not being instruments of gaming, to be sold and converted into money, and the proceeds thereof, with all monies seized therein, to be forfeited; or, in its discretion may order any part thereof to be returned to the parties appearing to have been severally thereunto entitled.

VII. Any officer of police may arrest without warrant all persons whom he may see in the act of gaming in any public street, place or thoroughfare in the said Settlement, and seize all cards, dice, pohs, counters and instruments of gaming which he finds in their possession, which, on conviction of any of the parties, shall be forfeited.

VIII. It shall not be necessary in order to convict any person of keeping a common gaming house, or of being concerned in the management of any common gaming house, to prove that any person found playing at any game was playing for any money, wager or stake.

IX. Any person who shall have been concerned in any unlawful gaming, and who shall be examined as a witness before the said Court of Quarter Session on the trial of any person or persons for a breach of any of the provisions of this Act, and who upon such examination shall make true and faithful discovery, to the best of his or her knowledge, of all things as to which he or she shall be so examined, and who shall thereupon receive from the said Court a certificate in writing to that effect, shall be freed from all prosecutions under this Act for any thing done before that time in respect of such unlawful gaming.

X. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Act contained shall be held to apply to any game of mere skill played at licensed hotels, taverns or eating houses, or places of public resort within the said Settlement.

XI. Every person who shall, by any fraud, or unlawful device or ill practice in playing at or with cards, dice, or other game, or in bearing a part of the stakes, wagers or adventures, or in betting on the sides or hands of them that do play, or in wagering on the event of any game, sport, pastime or exercise, win from any other person, for himself, or any other or others, any sum of money or valuable thing, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining such money or valuable thing from such other person by a false pretence, with intent to cheat or defraud such person of the same, and, being convicted thereof, shall be punished accordingly.

XII. No conviction or other proceeding before the said Court of Quarter Session under this Act shall be quashed, reversed or set aside, or adjudged void or insufficient for want of form, or be removed by Certiorari into Her Majesty's Supreme Court.

XIII. The Court of Quarter Session shall on conviction have power to direct any portion, not exceeding one-fourth of any fine which shall be levied under the provisions of this Act, or any part of the monies or proceeds of articles seized in any common gaming house, and ordered to be forfeited, to be paid to an informer, and the balance of such fines and monies, or the whole thereof as the case may be, shall be applied to the use of the municipal fund of the station within the said Settlement at which the same shall have been taken.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 21st day of August next.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, The 21st May, 1852.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 21st of May 1852.

ACT No. —— OF 1852.

An Act for the prevention of gambling in the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca.

Whereas the vice of gambling has much increased, and many gaming houses have been established within the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, for suppression of which the laws now in force are inadequate, It is enacted as follows :

I. Every person who within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, shall keep a common gaming house, or any room or other place used for the purposes of a common gaming house, or who shall have the care or management thereof, or shall in any manner conduct the business of any such common gaming house, either as banker, shroof, croupier or otherwise, shall, on conviction before the Court of Quarter Session of the said Settlement, be punishable by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding six calendar months, or, in the discretion of the Court, to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in default of payment of such fine where a fine shall be imposed, the offender may be imprisoned by the said Court, with or without hard labor, either in the House of Correction or Her Majesty's Jail for any period not exceeding six calendar months.

II. In default of other evidence proving any house, room or place to be used as a common gaming house, it shall be enough, in support of the allegation in any charge, that any house, room or place is a common gaming house, to prove that such house, room or place is kept or used for playing therein at cards, dice, poh, or any unlawful game, and that a bank is kept there by any one or more of the players exclusively of the others, or that the chances of any game played therein are not alike favorable to all the players, including among the players, the banker or other person by whom the game is managed, or against whom the other players stake, play or bet ; and every such house, room or place shall be deemed a common gaming house.

III. Every person who shall be found in any such common gaming house playing or gaming with cards, dice, counters, poh, money, or other instruments of gaming, or who shall be found there present during such playing or gaming, or for the purpose of gaming, or who shall be found gaming with cards, dice, counters, poh, money or other instruments of gaming in any public street, place or thoroughfare within the said Settlement, whether playing for any money, wager, stake or otherwise, shall be punishable on conviction before the Court of Quarter Session of the said Settlement, by imprisonment for any term not exceeding three calendar months, or, in the discretion of the said Court, by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, and in default of payment of such fine may be imprisoned by the said Court, with or without hard labor, either in the house of correction or in Her Majesty's Jail for any period not exceeding three calendar months.

IV. Any Justice of the Peace of the said Settlement, upon information laid before him on oath that there is reason to suspect any house, room or place within the said Settlement to be used as a common gaming house, may, by his warrant, give authority to any peace officer of the said Settlement to enter, with such assistance as may be found necessary, by night or by day, and by force if necessary, any such house, room or other place, and to take into custody all persons whom he finds therein whether or not then actually gaming ; and to seize all instruments of gaming, and all monies and securities for money found therein ; and to search all parts of the house, room or place which he shall have so entered, when he has reason to believe that any instruments of gaming are concealed therein, and to search also the persons of those whom he so takes into custody, and to seize and take possession of all cards, dice, pohs, counters and other instruments of gaming which he shall find upon such search.

V. When any cards, dice, pohs, gaming table or cloth, board or other instruments of gaming are found in any house, room or place, of which information has been given on oath to a Justice of the Peace that it is suspected of being used as a common gaming house, or about the person of any of those who are found therein, it shall be evidence, until the contrary is made to appear, that such house, room or place is used as a common gaming house, and that the persons found therein were there present for the purpose of gaming, although no play was actually seen by the peace officer, or any of his assistants.

VI. On conviction of any person for keeping, or being present for the purpose of gaming, in any such common gaming house, all the instruments of gaming found therein shall be destroyed by order of the Court of Quarter Session, which shall also order all or any of the securities for money and other articles seized, not being instruments of gaming, to be sold and converted into money, and the proceeds thereof, with all monies seized therein, to be forfeited; or, in its discretion may order any part thereof to be returned to the parties appearing to have been severally thereunto entitled.

VII. Any officer of police may arrest without warrant all persons whom he may see in the act of gaming in any public street, place or thoroughfare in the said Settlement, and seize all cards, dice, pohs, counters and instruments of gaming which he finds in their possession, which, on conviction of any of the parties, shall be forfeited.

VIII. It shall not be necessary in order to convict any person of keeping a common gaming house, or of being concerned in the management of any common gaming house, to prove that any person found playing at any game was playing for any money, wager or stake.

IX. Any person who shall have been concerned in any unlawful gaming, and who shall be examined as a witness before the said Court of Quarter Session on the trial of any person or persons for a breach of any of the provisions of this Act, and who upon such examination shall make true and faithful discovery, to the best of his or her knowledge, of all things as to which he or she shall be so examined, and who shall thereupon receive from the said Court a certificate in writing to that effect, shall be freed from all prosecutions under this Act for any thing done before that time in respect of such unlawful gaming.

X. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Act contained shall be held to apply to any game of mere skill played at licensed hotels, taverns or eating houses, or places of public resort within the said Settlement.

XI. Every person who shall, by any fraud, or unlawful device or ill practice in playing at or with cards, dice, or other game, or in betting a part of the stakes, wagers or adventures, or in betting on the sides or hands of them that do play, or in wagering on the event of any game, sport, pastime or exercise, win from any other person, for himself, or any other or others, any sum of money or valuable thing, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining such money or valuable thing from such other person by a false pretence, with intent to cheat or defraud such person of the same, and, being convicted thereof, shall be punished accordingly.

XII. No conviction or other proceeding before the said Court of Quarter Session under this Act shall be quashed, reversed or set aside, or adjudged void or insufficient for want of form, or be removed by Certiorari into Her Majesty's Supreme Court.

XIII. The Court of Quarter Session shall on conviction have power to direct any portion, not exceeding one-fourth of any fine which shall be levied under the provisions of this Act, or any part of the monies or proceeds of articles seized in any common gaming house and ordered to be forfeited, to be paid to an informer, and the balance of such fines and monies, or the whole thereof as the case may be, shall be applied to the use of the municipal fund of the station within the said Settlement at which the same shall have been taken.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 21st day of August next.

FROM

COMMODORE GEORGE R. LAMBERT,

To

C. ALLEN, Esq.,
Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, Calcutta.

Dated, Her Majesty's Ship "Fox's" boat at Bassein, 20th May, 1852.

SIR,

I request you may be pleased to inform the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council, that the Lieutenant General Commanding the Forces having communicated his wish to make an attack on the city of Bassein, I placed a Squadron of four Steamers at his disposal for this service.

2. On the morning of the 17th instant, Lieutenant General Godwin, C. B. the Commander of the Forces, embarked in the Squadron with four hundred of Her Majesty's 51st Regiment, three hundred of the 9th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry; sixty Sappers and Miners, the Royal Marines, and a Detachment of Seamen with a field Gun from Her Majesty's Ship "Fox."

3. I left the Naval Forces at Rangoon in charge of Commander Tarleton with the "Fox," and went with my boat to the "Tenasserim," in which steamer I hoisted my broad pendant, and put to Sea at two o'clock in the afternoon with the Steamers named in the inclosure marked A.

The Lieutenant General accompanied me in the "Tenasserim."

4. On the evening of the 18th, we anchored off the Island of Negrais at the entrance of the Bassein River, where the "Pluto" joined us. I had sent her on from Rangoon a day previously, as her small power could not have enabled her to keep up with the Steam Frigates.

5. At daylight on the 19th, Squadron weighed and proceeded up the River. The "Pluto," from her light draught, being ahead showing the soundings. The "Tenasserim" led, followed by the "Sesostris" and "Mozuffer," at half a cable's length distant.

6. At a few minutes after four o'clock in the afternoon, the fortifications of Bassein appeared in sight, consisting of a very extensive Mud Fort, and a long line of Stockade on the left bank, on which the City stands, and a strong Stockade round the Pagoda with a brick parapet fronting the River. Then, in an admirable position on the right bank, stood a very large Stockade mounting several cannons.

The Enemy permitted the Squadron to approach unmolested.

7. At half past four, when abreast the Stockades, I made the signal to anchor: immediately afterwards Lieutenant General Godwin expressed his wish to land the Troops, which was effected in perfect order in a very short period. They had scarcely formed under the Lieutenant General's direction, when a heavy fire was opened both with Cannon and Musketry from the various Stockades, which was instantly answered by a cheer from the party landed, who stormed and carried the Pagoda.

As soon as the Enemy commenced firing, the Ships opened their fire on the different Batteries.

Observing the Stockade opposite the town had been silenced, I directed Commander Campbell, of the "Sesostris," to land with the boats of his own Ship and the "Mozuffer's," and to storm it, which he effected in gallant style, driving the Burmese from their Guns with considerable loss to them in killed and wounded.

Commander Campbell has called my special attention to the zeal and activity displayed on this occasion by Lieutenants Robinson and Lewis, of the Indian Navy.

At half past five I had the satisfaction of hearing that the last and most formidable of the Stockades had been carried; but not without considerable loss on our part from the great resistance shown by the Enemy.

Amongst those I have to enumerate as sufferers on this occasion, I have to name Lieutenant George W. Rice, of Her Majesty's Ship "Fox," who received a severe and painful wound through the right hand whilst gallantly leading his party of Seamen into the Stockade.

I feel it my duty also to mention the steady conduct of the Royal Marines under the Command of First Lieutenant John Elliott, and I cannot conclude without expressing my best thanks to Commanders Campbell and Hewett, of the Indian Navy, for the skill and ability with which they brought their Ships up a River, which has hitherto been but imperfectly surveyed, for a distance of more than sixty miles; nor can I refrain from expressing how much I am indebted to Commanders Dicey and Burbank, of the Bengal Marine, for the assistance I received from them; and I attribute our being able to perform this service without accident, to the careful and judicious manner with which the Commander of the "Pluto" went in advance and communicated the soundings.

I cannot forbear bringing to His Lordship's notice Mr. Francis Duncan, Second Officer of the "Tenasserim," he was by the side of Lieutenant Rice when he was wounded, and in storming the Stockade his conduct was most gallant.

My thanks are general to the Officers and men who served under my orders on this occasion, for the steady, gallant, and cheerful conduct with which they performed the duty; neither can I omit remarking that the most perfect unanimity prevailed between the two services.

8. Since my last visit to Negrais, the old Governor of Bassien has been removed, and the Government entrusted to another Officer, who arrived here from Ava with four thousand regular Troops, which increased the strength of the Garrison to six thousand men.

9. I have the honor to forward herewith a List of killed and wounded in the Squadron, the Casualties amongst the Troops, I understand, amounted to about twenty-five more, and I also inclose a Return of the number of Cannon captured from the Enemy.

Inclosures B. and C.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

NOTIFICATION.

FORT WILLIAM,

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

THE 5TH JUNE, 1852.

THE Governor General in Council has the gratification of announcing the capture of Bassein, and of publishing, for general information, the Despatches which report the combined operations of the Naval and Military Force, by which this service has been executed.

In ascending for sixty miles a River still very imperfectly known, in effecting the landing of the Troops, and capturing the City, the Fort, and the Stockaded defences on both sides of the River fully garrisoned and armed, and in accomplishing all this with very unequal numbers, and within the limits of a single day, the combined forces at Bassein performed a gallant and spirited service, which well deserves the approbation and applause of the Government of India.

To Major General Godwin, C. B., and to Commodore Lambert, the Governor General in Council has again the satisfaction of offering his cordial acknowledgments of the ability and good-will with which they have united their exertions for ensuring success to the operations in which they were engaged.

The Governor General in Council begs to repeat his thanks to Major Boulderson, Deputy Judge Advocate General, to Captain Latter, to Captain Chads, A. D. C., and to Lieutenant Ford, of the Madras Sappers, for their conduct in the field on this occasion.

His Lordship in Council desires especially to mark his sense of the services rendered by Major Errington, H. M. 51st Light Infantry, Commanding the detachment of Troops at Bassein, and to Commander Campbell, of the Indian Navy, by whom the Stockade upon the right bank of the River was stormed and taken.

To Captain Rice, Captain Darroch and Lieutenant Carter, of H. M.'s 51st Light Infantry, to Lieutenant Ansley, 9th M. N I., to Lieutenant Craster, Bengal Engineers, and to Dr. McCosh, of the Medical Department, the Governor General in Council begs leave to convey his best thanks.

Equal acknowldegments are due to Lieutenant Rice, R. N., to Lieutenant Elliot and Lieutenant Nightingale, R. M., to Commander Hewett, to Lieutenant Robinson and Lieutenant Lewis, Indian Navy, and to Captain Dicey, Captain Burbank and Mr. F. Duncan, of the Bengal Marine, whose services have been commended.

The Governor General in Council has particular satisfaction in adding the expression of his entire approbation of the gallantry and good conduct of the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men of H. M.'s 51st Regiment, of 9th Regiment M. N. I., of the Madras Sappers and Miners, and of the Seamen and Marines employed in the capture of the City of Bassein.

C. ALLEN,

No. 4.

From LIEUTENANT GENERAL H. GODWIN, C. B.,

Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan and Tenasserim Provinces.

To CHARLES ALLEN, Esquire,

Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, Fort William.

Dated, Head-Quarters, Rangoon, 24th May, 1852.

Sir,

The Governor General having expressed some anxiety about the South part of Arracan, as being in the neighbourhood of Bassein, I resolved, as soon as I could conveniently leave Rangoon, to take a Detachment, and personally visit the place. On expressing this intention to Commodore Lambert, he, to my very great pleasure, said he would accompany me. I fixed on Monday the 17th May, and had a Detachment warned to be ready to embark on that morning, consisting, of 400 of the 51st K. O. L. I., 300 of the 9th Madras N. I., 67 Madras Sappers, and a Serjeant and 6 Gunners of the Bengal Artillery. The whole party was placed under the Command of Major Errington of the 51st L. I.

The Commodore appointed three fine vessels to carry the troops—the H. C. S. F. "Sesostris" and "Mozuffer" and the "Tenasserim," with a smaller Steamer, the "Pluto," carrying the Naval Brigade and Marines of H. M.'s Frigate "Fox."

We cleared the Rangoon river on the afternoon of Monday the 17th, and on the next evening anchored off Negrais Island, leading into the Bassein river. At day break the next morning the Flotilla weighed, and we ascended that most beautiful stream for 60 miles, which at 4 o'clock brought us in view of the defences, of about a mile long, of the City of Bassein. We had passed some new Stockades, one at and the other South of Naputa, a few miles below the Town, which were not armed, but these consisted of one extensive Stockade, with several hundred men in it, fully armed and with cannon.

The enemy looked at us, but did not show any disposition to molest. The Flotilla arrived at the left of their position, a strong well-built Mud Fort, armed with cannon and men. This we passed within two hundred yards, and so in succession all their defences for nearly a mile, till the "Tenasserim," with the Commodore and myself on board, anchored opposite a golden Pagoda, centrally situated within the defences. The Steamers anchored in succession without bringing down the fire of a single musket.

The admirable position taken up by the Steamers induced me to order the immediate landing of the Troops. The enemy appeared so completely surprised and paralyzed by our approach, that I gave orders not to fire unless fired on, and to take possession of the Pagoda. Nearly all the men of H. M.'s 51st Foot got on shore under the Pagoda before a shot was fired. Captain Latter, my Interpreter, accompanied Captain Darroch with a Company of the 51st on shore, and landed on the extreme right of the works, opposite a traverse covering a gateway, and there a parley was held between Captain Latter and some Burmese on the Walls, which brought on the first discharge of Musketry, killing a Serjeant and wounding two men. This fire was taken up and ran down the works, but soon ceased.

At this time Major Errington made his advance on the Pagoda and carried it in most gallant style, the 51st L. I. maintaining nobly the character they had ever commanded by their courage and distinguished conduct in the field.

The contest that stamped the operations of this remarkable day with a brilliant conclusion, was the attack on the Mud Fort, most scientifically built, and of great extent, which could only have been constructed under a disposition that commanded the labor of its subjects, in the short time they had been about it. It was not entirely completed in its details within. The storming party under Major Errington proceeding to the left of the Burmese works, accompanied by Lieutenant Rice of H. M.'s Frigate "Fox," and Lieutenant Ford of the Madras Sappers, came upon this Mud Fort fully garrisoned and well armed. The attack was most determined, as was the defence obstinate. It was bravely stormed, but with the consequence of Major Errington and several Officers and men being severely wounded. Lieutenant Ansley, with a small Detachment of the 9th Madras N. I. shared in this contest; he was severely wounded, and the Corps proved itself to be as good as it looks, and it is one of the nicest corps I have ever seen. Its gallantry and devotion on this occasion claiming the admiration of all who witnessed it. The whole affair was over a little after six o'clock.

While these operations had been going on, the Commodore had claimed the services of Captain Campbell of the "Sesostris," and his men, in destroying a large Stockade on the opposite bank of the River. They drove off the Burmese, fired the Stockade, and took six guns.

I am informed from several sources that the enemy suffered very severely in the contest in the Mud Fort.

In having the honor, as well as the gratification of reporting to the Governor General in Council the possession of this important Station, I will observe that, from every indication of preparation going on, the Government of this Country intended to make it a most powerful place and to repair the loss of Rangoon by establishing Bassein as their mart of communication with this Country, as well as a powerful position to keep in subjection the Pegu population, so decidedly and ever our friends, and also to maintain a threatening attitude towards the South of Arracan.

By leaving Bassein to itself, I should have been giving it back to the soldiery just driven out, as the defences had been built and put into the improved state I have described, by five thousand men from the Upper Country, commanded by a man of reputation. To secure it, I have left a Garrison of two Companies (160 men) of the 51st L. I., and three hundred men of the 9th Madras Native Infantry. These will be reinforced by an Officer of Artillery and half a Company with two 9-Pounder Guns. The Garrison now possessing two 12-inch Howitzers. These, with two months' rations, will leave this on or about the 26th instant. Major Roberts, of the 9th M. N. I., will proceed in the same Vessel to take Command of Bassein; he is an experienced and excellent Officer.

I consider that in a few weeks the Burmese Soldiery of the upper country will have returned to their homes, meeting with no sympathy from the Pegu population, and the Pegu Soldiers themselves are already with their families, so that the Garrison I have left could, in a Military point of view, be withdrawn in six weeks: and it will then remain with the Government of India to decide whether it hold during the War this very important place. If so, further arrangements will be very necessary. Major Fraser, the Commanding Engineer, should visit it. A very little expence will make it a secure position. The Barrack houses the Soldiery are now in are excellent, and well built of wood. Fresh meat can be had, as the population of the place are coming under our protection in great numbers.

I may here remark, that that most admirable Officer, and clear-seeing man, my most respected late Commander Sir A. Campbell, attached great importance to the holding of Bassein.

After passing two clear days in arranging for the stability of the Detachment to be left here, on the morning of the 22nd, the Flotilla, with the exception of the "Sesostris", which remains, weighed at day break, and reached Rangoon on the 23rd May, after an absence of only seven days.

To Commodore Lambert, and to this combined Expedition, the Governor General in Council owes all that professional ability and unremitting exertion could accomplish towards success to which they so largely contributed. The H. C. Steamer "Proserpine," Commander Brooking, arrived 24 hours after the place was taken, but even so his activity was not lost, for he and his Vessel went off the morning before we weighed and destroyed the Stockade that I mentioned to have passed on the way up to the River.

Major Errington, of H. M.'s 51st L. I., who commanded the Detachment of Troops, embarked for Bassein, who principally directed this Detachment, and who fought this Detachment, deserves the particular thanks of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council. I have great pleasure in forwarding his Report of the operations, for the perusal of His Lordship in Council.

I beg the best consideration of Government for Captain Rice, and Lieutenant Carter, of the 51st Light Infantry, and for Lieutenant Ansley, of the 9th Madras Native Infantry, all three severely wounded at the assault of the Fort, and also for Lieutenant Ford, of the Sappers and Miners, on the same occasion, for Lieutenant Rice, 1st of Her Majesty's Frigate "Fox," who commanded the Naval Brigade, and who was severely wounded, whilst particularly distinguishing himself in the attack of the Fort.

It has been brought to my notice that Mr Duncan, the 2nd Officer of the H. C. Steamer "Tenasserim," at the head of a party of men of his Ship, behaved most gallantly upon the same occasion.

To Captain Darroch, of the 51st L. I., and to Captain Latter, my Interpreter, thanks are due for their gallantry in forcing the traverse, and entering at the gate on the right of the enemy's position. Lieut. Craster, of the Bengal Engineers, also merits thanks, and the Plan of Bassein, which I enclose for the Governor General's inspection, will prove his professional competency. To Lieutenants Elliot and Nightingale, with the Marines of H. M.'s Frigate "Fox," and to Captain Campbell, of the H. C. Steamer Frigate "Sesostris," I beg your Lordship in Council's kind consideration. To Doctor McCosh and the Officers of the Medical Department, thanks are particularly due.

The Naval part of the Expedition, both Sailors and Marines, supported the character that has ever been theirs of undaunted courage.

I have been considered wanting sometimes, in not more particularly naming Corps or individuals, but in this peculiar warfare of constant assaults on well armed and strong positions, often well defended, it has been the noble emulation of all to be first into the enemy's works. It was in such an effort of ambition that that fine and gallant young Officer, Lieutenant Doran, of the 18th R. I., fell pierced with four balls, far in advance of his proper post, indeed, I might fill my report with names, were all to be individualized.

I now beg particularly to bring to the notice of the Governor General in Council, Major Boulderson, of the Madras Army, the Deputy Judge Advocate General of the Force, who, on this occasion, accompanied me, and filled the two posts of Assistant Adjutant and Assistant Quarter Master General to the Expedition, as I could not move from their important duties at Rangoon, Adjutant General Mayhew, nor Quarter Master General Allan.

The Major has been of much essential service to me in various ways; and the judicious manner in which he posted the Pickets after the capture of Bassein, in that wilderness of houses and jungle, tended to the perfect security of the Force. Captain Chads, my A. D. C., never leaves me, and always makes himself particularly useful.

Since my last Report, nothing worthy of note has occurred at Rangoon. The Town is increasing in importance by the crowds of Natives who daily come in with their families and goods; as is the case throughout the neighbourhood, but especially at Kemmendine, which is as large a place as Rangoon.

The conduct of the Troops is excellent, and their health is improving daily since the rain has set in.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE MOST NOBLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

FORT WILLIAM, 7TH JUNE, 1852.

The following Notification from the Foreign Department, is re-published in General Orders :

No. 118.

NOTIFICATION.

FORT WILLIAM,

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

THE 5TH JUNE, 1852.

THE Governor General in Council has the gratification of announcing the capture of Bassein, and of publishing, for general information, the Despatches which report the combined operations of the Naval and Military Force, by which this service has been executed.

In ascending for sixty miles a River still very imperfectly known, in effecting the landing of the Troops, and capturing the City, the Fort, and the Stockaded defences on both sides of the River fully garrisoned and armed, and in accomplishing all this with very unequal numbers, and within the limits of a single day, the combined Forces at Bassein performed a gallant and spirited service, which well deserves the approbation and applause of the Government of India.

To Major General Godwin, C. B., and to Commodore Lambert, the Governor General in Council has again the satisfaction of offering his cordial acknowledgments of the ability and good-will with which they have united their exertions for ensuring success to the operations in which they were engaged.

The Governor General in Council begs to repeat his thanks to Major Boulderson, Deputy Judge Advocate General, to Captain Latter, to Captain Chads, A. D. C., and to Lieutenant Ford, of the Madras Sappers, for their conduct in the field on this occasion.

His Lordship in Council desires especially to mark his sense of the services rendered by Major Errington, H. M. 51st Light Infantry, Commanding the detachment of Troops at Bassein, and to Commander Campbell, of the Indian Navy, by whom the Stockade upon the right bank of the River was stormed and taken.

To Captain Rice, Captain Darroch and Lieutenant Carter, of H. M.'s 51st Light Infantry, to Lieutenant Ansley, 9th M. N I., to Lieutenant Craster, Bengal Engineers, and to Dr. McCosh, of the Medical Department, the Governor General in Council begs leave to convey his best thanks.

Equal acknowledgments are due to Lieutenant Rice, R. N., to Lieutenant Elliot and Lieutenant Nightingale, R. M., to Commander Hewett, to Lieutenant Robinson and Lieutenant Lewis, Indian Navy, and to Captain Dicey, Captain Burbank and Mr. F. Duncan, of the Bengal Marine, whose services have been commended.

The Governor General in Council has particular satisfaction in adding the expression of his entire approbation of the gallantry and good conduct of the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men of H. M.'s 51st Regiment, of 9th Regiment M. N. I., of the Madras Sappers and Miners, and of the Seamen and Marines employed in the capture of the City of Bassein.

By Order of the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council,

C. ALLEN,

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 4.

FROM LIEUTENANT GENERAL H. GODWIN, C. B.,

Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan and Tenasserim Provinces,

TO CHARLES ALLEN, ESQUIRE,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, Fort William.

Dated, Head-Quarters, Rangoon, 24th May, 1852.

SIR,

The Governor General having expressed some anxiety about the South part of Arracan, as being in the neighbourhood of Bassein, I resolved, as soon as I could conveniently leave Rangoon, to take a Detachment, and personally visit the place. On expressing this intention to Commodore Lambert, he, to my very great pleasure, said he would accompany me. I fixed on Monday the 17th May, and had a Detachment warned to be ready to embark on that morning, consisting, of 400 of the 51st K. O. L. I., 300 of the 9th Madras N. I., 67 Madras Sappers, and a Serjeant and 6 Gunners of the Bengal Artillery. The whole party was placed under the Command of Major Errington of the 51st L. I.

The Commodore appointed three fine vessels to carry the troops—the H. C. S. F. "Sesostris" and "Mozuffer" and the "Tenasserim," with a smaller Steamer, the "Pluto," carrying the Naval Brigade and Marines of H. M.'s Frigate "Fox."

We cleared the Rangoon river on the afternoon of Monday the 17th, and on the next evening anchored off Negrais Island, leading into the Bassein river. At day break the next morning the Flotilla weighed, and we ascended that most beautiful stream for 60 miles, which at 4 o'clock brought us in view of the defences, of about a mile long, of the City of Bassein. We had passed some new Stockades, one at and the other South of Naputa, a few miles below the Town, which were not armed, but these consisted of one extensive Stockade, with several hundred men in it, fully armed and with cannon.

The enemy looked at us, but did not show any disposition to molest. The Flotilla arrived at the left of their position, a strong well-built Mud Fort, armed with cannon and men. This we passed within two hundred yards, and so in succession all their defences for nearly a mile, till the "Tenasserim," with the Commodore and myself on board, anchored opposite a golden Pagoda, centrally situated within the defences. The Steamers anchored in succession without bringing down the fire of a single musket.

The admirable position taken up by the Steamers induced me to order the immediate landing of the Troops. The enemy appeared so completely surprised and paralyzed by our approach, that I gave orders not to fire unless fired on, and to take possession of the Pagoda. Nearly all the men of H. M.'s 51st Foot got on shore under the Pagoda before a shot was fired. Captain Latter, my Interpreter, accompanied Captain Darroch with a Company of the 51st on shore, and landed on the extreme right of the works, opposite a traverse covering a gateway, and there a parley was held between Captain Latter and some Burmese on the Walls, which brought on the first discharge of Musketry, killing a Serjeant and wounding two men. This fire was taken up and ran down the works, but soon ceased.

At this time Major Errington made his advance on the Pagoda and carried it in most gallant style, the 51st L. I. maintaining nobly the character they had ever commanded by their courage and distinguished conduct in the field.

The contest that stamped the operations of this remarkable day with a brilliant conclusion, was the attack on the Mud Fort, most scientifically built, and of great extent, which could only have been constructed under a disposition that commanded the labor of its subjects, in the short time they had been about it. It was not entirely completed in its details within. The storming party under Major Errington, proceeding to the left of the Burmese works, accompanied by Lieutenant Rice of H. M.'s Frigate "Fox," and Lieutenant Ford of the Madras Sappers, came upon this Mud Fort fully garrisoned and well armed. The attack was most determined, as was the defence obstinate. It was bravely stormed, but with the consequence of Major Errington and several Officers and men being severely wounded. Lieutenant Ansley, with a small Detachment of the 9th Madras N. I., shared in this contest; he was severely wounded, and the Corps proved itself to be as good as it looks, and it is one of the nicest Corps I have ever seen, its gallantry and devotion on this occasion claiming the admiration of all who witnessed it. The whole affair was over a little after 6 o'clock.

While these operations had been going on, the Commodore had claimed the services of Captain Campbell of the "Sesostris," and his men, in destroying a large Stockade on the opposite bank of the River. They drove off the Burmese, fired the Stockade, and took six guns.

I am informed from several sources that the enemy suffered very severely in the contest in the Mud Fort.

In having the honor, as well as the gratification of reporting to the Governor General in Council the possession of this important Station, I will observe that, from every indication of preparation going on, the Government of this Country intended to make it a most powerful place and to repair the loss of Rangoon by establishing Bassein as their mart of communication with this Country, as well as a powerful position to keep in subjection the Pegu population, so decidedly and ever our friends, and also to maintain a threatening attitude towards the South of Arracan.

By leaving Bassein to itself, I should have been giving it back to the Soldiery just driven out, as the defences had been built and put into the improved state I have described, by five thousand men from the Upper Country, commanded by a man of reputation. To secure it, I have left a Garrison of two Companies (160 men) of the 51st L. I., and three hundred men of the 9th Madras Native Infantry. These will be reinforced by an Officer of Artillery and half a Company with two 9-Pounder Guns, the Garrison now possessing two 12-inch Howitzers. These, with two months' rations, will leave this on or about the 26th instant. Major Roberts, of the 9th M. N. I., will proceed in the same Vessel to take Command of Bassein; he is an experienced and excellent Officer.

I consider that in a few weeks the Burmese Soldiery of the Upper Country will have returned to their homes, meeting with no sympathy from the Pegu population, and the Pegu Soldiers themselves are already with their families, so that the Garrison I have left could, in a Military point of view, be withdrawn in six weeks: and it will then remain with the Government of India to decide whether it hold during the War this very important place. If so, further arrangements will be very necessary. Major Fraser, the Commanding Engineer, should visit it. A very little expence will make it a secure position. The Barrack houses the Soldiery are now in are excellent, and well built of wood. Fresh meat can be had, as the population of the place are coming under our protection in great numbers.

I may here remark, that that most admirable Officer, and clear-seeing man, my most respected late Commander, Sir A. Campbell, attached great importance to the holding of Bassein.

After passing two clear days in arranging for the stability of the Detachment to be left here, on the morning of the 22nd, the Flotilla, with the exception of the "Sesostris", which remains, weighed at daybreak, and reached Rangoon on the 23rd May, after an absence of only seven days.

To Commodore Lambert, and to this combined Expedition, the Governor General in Council owes all that professional ability and unremitting exertion could accomplish towards success to which they so largely contributed. The H. C. Steamer "Proserpine," Commander Brooking, arrived 24 hours after the place was taken, but even so his activity was not lost, for he and his Vessel went off the morning before we weighed and destroyed the Stockade that I mentioned to have passed on the way up to the River.

Major Errington, of H. M.'s 51st L. I., who commanded the Detachment of Troops, embarked for Bassein, who principally directed this Detachment, and who fought this Detachment, deserves the particular thanks of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council. I have great pleasure in forwarding his Report of the operations, for the perusal of His Lordship in Council.

I beg the best consideration of Government for Captain Rice, and Lieutenant Carter, of the 51st Light Infantry, and for Lieutenant Ansley, of the 9th Madras Native Infantry, all three severely wounded at the assault of the Fort, and also for Lieutenant Ford, of the Sappers and Miners, on the same occasion, for Lieutenant Rice, 1st of Her Majesty's Frigate "Fox," who commanded the Naval Brigade, and who was severely wounded, whilst particularly distinguishing himself in the attack of the Fort.

It has been brought to my notice that Mr Duncan, the 2nd Officer of the H. C. Steamer "Tenasserim," at the head of a party of men of his Ship, behaved most gallantly upon the same occasion.

To Captain Darroch, of the 51st L. I., and to Captain Latter, my Interpreter, thanks are due for their gallantry in forcing the traverse, and entering at the gate on the right of the enemy's position. Lieut. Craster, of the Bengal Engineers, also merits thanks, and the Plan of Bassein, which I enclose for the Governor General's inspection, will prove his professional competency. To Lieutenants Elliot and Nightingale, with the Marines of H. M.'s Frigate "Fox," and to Captain Campbell, of the H. C. Steamer Frigate "Sesostris," I beg your Lordship in Council's kind consideration. To Doctor McCosh and the Officers of the Medical Department, thanks are particularly due.

The Naval part of the Expedition, both Sailors and Marines, supported the character that has ever been theirs of undaunted courage.

I have been considered wanting sometimes in not more particularly naming Corps or individuals, but in this peculiar warfare of constant assaults on well armed and strong positions, often well defended, it has been the noble emulation of all to be first into the enemy's works. It was in such an effort of ambition that that fine and gallant young Officer, Lieutenant Doran, of the 18th R. I., fell pierced with four balls, far in advance of his proper post, indeed, I might fill my report with names, were all to be individualized.

I now beg particularly to bring to the notice of the Governor General in Council, Major Boulderson, of the Madras Army, the Deputy Judge Advocate General of the Force, who, on this occasion, accompanied me, and filled the two posts of Assistant Adjutant and Assistant Quarter Master General to the Expedition, as I could not move from their important duties at Rangoon, Adjutant General Mayhew, nor Quarter Master General Allan.

The Major has been of much essential service to me in various ways; and the judicious manner in which he posted the Pickets after the capture of Bassein, in that wilderness of houses and jungle, tended to the perfect security of the Force. Captain Chads, my A. D. C., never leaves me, and always makes himself particularly useful.

Since my last Report, nothing worthy of note has occurred at Rangoon. The Town is increasing in importance by the crowds of Natives who daily come in with their families and goods; as is the case throughout the neighbourhood, but especially at Kemmendine, which is as large a place as Rangoon.

The conduct of the Troops is excellent, and their health is improving daily since the rain has set in.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

FROM

COMMODORE GEORGE R. LAMBERT,

TO

C. ALLEN, Esq.,
Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, Calcutta.

Dated, Her Majesty's Ship "Fox's" boat at Bassein, 20th May, 1852.

SIR,

I request you may be pleased to inform the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council, that the Lieutenant General Commanding the Forces having communicated his wish to make an attack on the city of Bassein, I placed a Squadron of four Steamers at his disposal for this service.

2. On the morning of the 17th instant, Lieutenant General Godwin, C. B. the Commander of the Forces, embarked in the Squadron with four hundred of Her Majesty's 51st Regiment, three hundred of the 9th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry; sixty Sappers and Miners, the Royal Marines, and a Detachment of Seamen with a field Gun from Her Majesty's Ship "Fox."

3. I left the Naval Forces at Rangoon in charge of Commander Tarleton with the "Fox," and went with my boat to the "Tenasserim," in which steamer I hoisted my broad pendant, and put to Sea at two o'clock in the afternoon with the Steamers named in the inclosure marked A.

The Lieutenant General accompanied me in the "Tenasserim."

4. On the evening of the 18th, we anchored off the Island of Negrais at the entrance of the Bassein River, where the "Pluto" joined us. I had sent her on from Rangoon a day previously, as her small power could not have enabled her to keep up with the Steam Frigates.

5. At daylight on the 19th, the Squadron weighed and proceeded up the River. The "Pluto," from her light draught, being ahead showing the soundings. The "Tenasserim" led, followed by the "Sesostris" and "Mozuffer," at half a cable's length distant.

6. At a few minutes after four o'clock in the afternoon, the fortifications of Bassein appeared in sight, consisting of a very extensive Mud Fort, and a long line of Stockade on the left bank, on which the City stands, and a strong Stockade round the Pagoda, with a brick parapet fronting the River. Then, in an admirable position on the right bank, stood a very large Stockade mounting several cannons.

The Enemy permitted the Squadron to approach unmolested.

7. At half past four, when abreast the Stockades, I made the signal to anchor: immediately afterwards Lieutenant General Godwin expressed his wish to land the Troops, which was effected in perfect order in a very short period. They had scarcely formed under the Lieutenant General's direction, when a heavy fire was opened both with Cannon and Musketry from the various Stockades, which was instantly answered by a cheer from the party landed, who stormed and carried the Pagoda.

As soon as the Enemy commenced firing, the Ships opened their fire on the different Batteries.

Observing the Stockade opposite the Town had been silenced, I directed Commander Campbell, of the "Sesostris," to land with the boats of his own Ship and the "Mozuffer's," and to storm it, which he effected in gallant style, driving the Burmese from their Guns with considerable loss to them in killed and wounded.

Commander Campbell has called my special attention to the zeal and activity displayed on this occasion by Lieutenants Robinson and Lewis, of the Indian Navy.

At half past five I had the satisfaction of hearing that the last and most formidable of the Stockades had been carried; but not without considerable loss on our part from the great resistance shown by the Enemy.

Amongst those I have to enumerate as sufferers on this occasion, I have to name Lieutenant George W. Rice, of Her Majesty's Ship "Fox," who received a severe and painful wound through the right hand whilst gallantly leading his party of Seamen into the Stockade.

I feel it my duty also to mention the steady conduct of the Royal Marines under the Command of First Lieutenant John Elliott, and I cannot conclude without expressing my best thanks to Commanders Campbell and Hewett, of the Indian Navy, for the skill and ability with which they brought their Ships up a River, which has hitherto been but imperfectly surveyed, for a distance of more than sixty miles; nor can I refrain from expressing how much I am indebted to Commanders Dicey and Burbank, of the Bengal Marine, for the assistance I received from them; and I attribute our being able to perform this service without accident, to the careful and judicious manner with which the Commander of the "Pluto" went in advance and communicated the soundings.

I cannot forbear bringing to His Lordship's notice Mr. Francis Duncan, Second Officer of the "Tenasserim," he was by the side of Lieutenant Rice when he was wounded, and in storming the Stockade his conduct was most gallant.

My thanks are general to the Officers and men who served under my orders on this occasion, for the steady, gallant, and cheerful conduct with which they performed the duty; neither can I omit remarking that the most perfect unanimity prevailed between the two services.

8. Since my last visit to Negrais, the old Governor of Bassein has been removed, and the Government entrusted to another Officer, who arrived here from Ava with four thousand Regular Troops, which increased the strength of the Garrison to six thousand men.

9. I have the honor to forward herewith a List of killed and wounded in the Squadron: the Casualties amongst the Troops, I understand, amounted to about twenty-five more, and I also inclose a Return of the number of Cannon captured from the Enemy.

Inclosures B. and C.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

No. 1098 of 1852.

Orders by the Hon'ble the Lieutenant Governor of the North-Western Provinces.

General Department,

Agra, the 8th June 1852.

Notification.—1st. The attention of public Officers in the districts of Bareilly, Shahjehanpore, Furruckabad, Allygurh, Muttra, Mynpoorie, Agra and Etawah, is drawn to paragraph 13 of the Resolution of February 9th, 1850, for the promotion of Vernacular education.

Resolution, 9th February 1850, Para. 13. The operations must be conducted in concert with the Revenue Authorities, and must obtain their cordial assistance. The Agency which is now called into action, may be made most valuable in insuring the proper training of Putwaries, and in ascertaining the qualifications of Candidates or nominees for that Office. Certificates of qualifications from some of the persons employed in the department may be made necessary for advancement to the post of village Putwarry, and also to many other appointments, such as those of Peon, Chupprasee or Burkundaze, as well as to those higher Offices, where literary attainments are more evidently essential.

2nd. In these districts Tehseeldaree schools have been formed, and an Agency has been organized for assisting and encouraging education in every part of the district; ample means have been furnished to all, for the acquisition of the rudiments of learning; which are essential to the right discharge of the duties of any public Office.

3rd. All the Officers of Government in those districts are therefore prohibited, after the expiration of six months from the present time, from taking any person into public employ, who is not able to read and write, and understand ordinary accounts. Ability to read and explain the two first of Ram Surrun Doss' Elementary Treatises, either in Hindee or Oordoo, viz., No. I Letters and Words, and No. II Arithmetic, is the minimum qualification for all Burkundazes, Peons, Chupprasees, and persons of superior grade. This is applicable to all departments, viz., the Judicial, the Revenue, the Police, the Customs, and every other branch of the public service. In the selection of Chowkeedars, a preference shall always be given to Candidates possessed of the required qualifications.

4th. The Sudder Board of Revenue will fix the literary qualifications, which shall be necessary for Putwarries (village accountants,) and will consider how far the same principle can be made applicable to Candidates for the office of Lumbardar or representative of the village community.

5th. Whenever strong reasons exist for dispensing with the possession of the required qualification, the Commissioner of the Division, on the recommendation of the person who nominates to the office, is authorized to grant special exemptions for a fixed period, or for the lifetime of the exempted individual.

6th. The Zillah and Pergunnah visitors are authorized to give certificates of qualification to all persons who may make application to them for the purpose, and may give proof of their possessing the necessary knowledge. The production of such certificates will be sufficient proof that the holder possesses the required qualification. The Visitor General will issue such instructions as he considers necessary to ensure the due performance of this office by the persons employed under him.

7th. These rules are to be held strictly applicable only in the eight Districts, into which the measures for the promotion of Vernacular education have been introduced: but their spirit may be observed so far as is conveniently practicable throughout the Provinces. A preference should be given to all Candidates, for public employ, who possess at least a knowledge of the rudiments of literature indicated above.

Reply to Military Letter, dated 5th March 1852, No. 33.

Questions relating to the continuance of Major Generals of the Company's Service in Divisional Commands after promotion to the Rank of Lieutenant General, and to the grant, by the Commander-in-Chief in India, of local Brevets of Lieutenant General to Her Majesty's Major Generals on the Staff.

Para. 1. Under the instructions given in our Letter of the 16th February 1814, a rule was established, that "the allowances of a "Major General on the "Staff, after the notification "in General Order of his "promotion to the rank of "Lieutenant General, are "inadmissible from the "date of his receipt of "such Order."

2. Since this rule was adopted, there has, until the Brevet of November 1851, been only one Major General of the Company's Service who held a Divisional Command at the time he was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant General, viz., Major General Welsh, of the Madras Army; and this Officer was forthwith relieved from his Command, as shown by the General Order dated 16th February 1847, of which an extract is given in the margin.*

* Extract Madras General Order, dated 16*th February* 1847.

"to command "the Northern Division "of the Army in succes- "sion to Lieutenant Ge- "neral Welsh, to take "effect on the latter Of- "ficer's promotion."

3. A similar course has been taken when Her Majesty's Major Generals on the Divisional Staff in India have been promoted to be Lieutenant Generals, including one promoted in November 1851, such being the general rule of the Service.

Illustrated by a Series of Mathematical Calculations, with an Appendix, containing the Circular Orders of the Military Board, the Rules and Regulations of Government, relative to the construction and periodical repairs of the Grand Trunk Road, and of the Civil and Military Public Buildings;—accompanied by numerous Plans, Sections, Elevations of Cantonments—Churches, Cutcherries; Salt and Opium Factories; Barracks; Hospitals; Jails; Bells of Arms; Bridges; Pontoons; &c., to which is added a Glossary of Builders' Terms, with the names of Materials in English and Hindoostani. Compiled and arranged by W. PALMER, formerly of the Department of Public Works.

It seems scarcely necessary for the Author to add, that, this publication will not only be found extremely useful for ready reference, in the office of the Superintending and Executive Engineers, as quite handy on tours of Inspection, but will prove an invaluable vade mecum to the young Officers, preparing for the valuable staff appointments in the Department of Public Works, as Executive Officers, as the work will contain all the unrepealed Government General Orders, Precedents, and the different forms of returns required from the Executive Officers by the Department of Accounts; whilst the Tables of the quantity of Labor and Materials required for each description of work, based on the plan of the Tables of Rates, prepared some years ago, by Lieutenant-Colonel R. Tickell, of the Corps of Engineers, will be found of immense utility in checking the accounts of the Overseers and Native Agents; with a view to an early preparation of the Bills, and speedy adjustment of accounts, for submission to the Military Board and other authorities.

To Gentlemen in the Civil and Political branches of the service, the work will be found peculiarly useful when signing the completion Survey Reports or when they wish to recommend any work to Government.

The GLOSSARY of the Builders' Terms, in English and Hindoostani, will be found of great assistance to young Officers, who often experience great difficulty in explaining the Plans and Specifications of a work to Native Mistrees, at Out-posts where there are no European Overseers.

As a limited number of Copies only will be printed early application is recommended.

A Complete Guide to the Department of Public Works.

Illustrated by a Series of Mathematical Calculations, with an Appendix, containing the Circular Orders of the Military Board, the Rules and Regulations of Government, relative to the construction and periodical repairs of the Grand Trunk Road, and of the Civil and Military Public Buildings;—accompanied by numerous Plans, Sections, Elevations of Cantonments—Churches, Cutcherries; Salt and Opium Factories; Barracks; Hospitals; Jails; Bells of Arms; Bridges; Pontoons; &c., to which is added a Glossary of Builders' Terms, with the names of Materials in English and Hindoostani. Compiled and arranged by W. PALMER, formerly of the Department of Public Works.

It seems scarcely necessary for the Author to add, that this publication will not only be found extremely useful for ready reference, in the office of the Superintending and Executive Engineers, as quite handy on tours of Inspection, but will prove an invaluable vade mecum to the young Officers, preparing for the valuable staff appointments in the Department of Public Works, as Executive Officers, as the work will contain all the unrepealed Government General Orders, Precedents, and the different forms of returns required from the Executive Officers by the Department of Accounts; whilst the Tables of the quantity of Labor and Materials required for each description of work, based on the plan of the Tables of Rates, prepared some years ago, by Lieutenant-Colonel R. Tickell, of the Corps of Engineers, will be found of immense utility in checking the accounts of the Overseers and Native Agents; with a view to an early preparation of the Bills, and speedy adjustment of accounts, for submission to the Military Board and other authorities.

To Gentlemen in the Civil and Political branches of the service, the work will be found peculiarly useful when signing the completion Survey Reports or when they wish to recommend any work to Government.

The GLOSSARY of the Builders' Terms, in English and Hindoostani, will be found of great assistance to young Officers, who often experience great difficulty in explaining the Plans and Specifications of a work to Native Mistrees, at Out-posts where there are no European Overseers.

As a limited number of Copies only will be printed early application is recommended.

ACT No. —— OF 1852.

An Act for providing in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay for the punishment of Males of tender age for Petty Thefts.

Whereas, it is expedient, until adequate improvements in Prison Discipline can be effected at the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, to substitute corporal punishment for imprisonment, in case of offences committed by males of tender age, who should be punished rather in the way of school discipline than of ordinary criminal justice, It is enacted as follows:

I. Every Magistrate in the Presidency of Fort St. George; every Magistrate and First Assistant Magistrate in the Presidency of Bombay; and every Deputy or Assistant Magistrate in either of the said Presidencies, to whom the Governor in Council of the Presidency in which he is such Deputy or Assistant Magistrate may grant authority, shall, on conviction of theft of property not exceeding in value rupees fifty, if the person convicted be a male, and shall appear to him, by inspection or other evidence, to be of such tender years as to require punishment rather in the way of school discipline than of ordinary criminal justice, sentence such person to corporal punishment with a light ratan, not exceeding ten stripes, to be inflicted on the bare palm of the hand, or through a light garment on the back.

II. In cases of sentences to corporal punishment as aforesaid, no other punishment shall be superadded, and the punishment shall be inflicted on all occasions in the presence of the officer who awards it.

ACT No. —— OF 1852.

An Act for conferring Criminal Jurisdiction upon District Moonsiffs in the Presidency of Madras.

Whereas the administration of justice in the Presidency of Madras will be promoted by vesting District Moonsiffs with jurisdiction in criminal cases, It is enacted as follows:

I. It shall be competent to the Governor in Council of Fort St. George, by an order in writing, to empower one or more of the District Moonsiffs, in any Zillah of the said Presidency, to hear and determine complaints or prosecutions for petty offences and for petty thefts as defined in Sections XXXII. and XXXIII. of Regulation IX. of 1816, and for petty offences of the description specified in Clause 1, Section VIII. Regulation XIII. of 1832.

II. In bringing criminal cases before a District Moonsiff for trial under this Act, the District Police shall be subject to the same laws and rules as are now applicable to them in bringing similar cases before a Magistrate.
